JACOB SMITH, SENIOR, U. E.,
OF FREDERICKSBURGH.

Jacob Smith, Sr., according to his Loyalist Claim, was born in Germany and came to America many years before the Revolution. His age, according to a list of the 2nd battalion King's Royal Regiment of New York in Jan., 1783, was given as 42. This would make him born in 1740. His height was 5 feet 7 inches. In 1775 he lived near Albany, where he had lived for 20 years on 250 acres of Patroon Lands. He had cleared about 100 acres and had a good framed house. He lost a yoke of oxen, 2 steers, a mare and colt, a cow and 3 steers, all of which were taken by the Rebels.

Jacob joined General Burgoyne and served in Capt. Samuel McKay's Loyal Volunteers during the campaign of 1777. Under the terms of the Capitulation of the British Army Jacob Smith was allowed to go to Canada (Province of Quebec) on the promise that he would not serve again. As a result, for the next few years he was employed in public works. In 1781, the Americans having broken the terms of Capitulation, the Loyalists were regrouped into regiments. At this time Jacob Smith became a corporal in the 2nd battalion of the King's Royal Regiment of New York. This battalion served as garrison at Oswego and at Carleton Island, from which point they carried out the raid of October, 1781, down the Mohawk River, under Major Ross. In July, 1783, this battalion was sent to Cataragui (now Kingston) to rebuild the fort and to prepare for the settlement of the Loyalists along the Bay of Quinte. This battalion was discharged on 24 June, 1784, following which they settled in Township 3 (Fredericksburgh).

Jacob Smith's name is on the list of those settling in Fredericksburgh in October, 1784. His family, except for his sons who were serving with him, had not yet arrived from the States, and there is a notation that 'his lands not run out.' This means that he had land on lease somewhere, likely in the neighborhood of Montreal, which he could not leave immediately. So, he likely was with that portion of his battalion which remained in Quebec Province, although I cannot find further reference to him in that Province.

Jacob Smith's name is in the Provision list of 1786, and in 1790 he drew 350 acres of land, including lands for his wife and children (50 acres for having a wife and 50 for each child. This was separate from that drawn by his children). The date of his death was unknown, although he was alive in 1788. In addition to the 350 acres, he drew, in 1784, the east half of lot 25 in the 3rd concession of Fredericksburgh.

The name of his wife is unknown.

His known children were:

1. Barbara, wife of Jacob Pretz.
2. Nicholas.
3. Jacob.
4. Margaret, wife of Matthew German.
5. Elisabeth, wife of Conrad Johnson.
6. Catharine, wife of Joel Johnson, of Hallowell.
- + 7. (John) George, who married Susannah Lucas.
8. Annah, who married ----- Baker.
9. Rebecca, who married ----- Edgar.
10. Philip.

I wish to add that Jacob's son, Jacob, Jr., in giving testimony regarding his father's Loyalist Claim, stated that his father was upwards of sixty years.

So, Jacob, Sr., may have been born in 1720, not 1740.

Two of Jacob's sons served in the ~~surrendered to the British~~ Loyalist army, according to the statement of Philip, son of Jacob, Sr. In a list of the King's Rangers is Philip, aged 23 years, 5' 9". It is not known which of the several Smiths in Fredericksburgh was the other son. It could have been Jacob, Jr.,

JACOB SMITH, SR.

ALTHOUGH I cannot find his name in the muster rolls.

John George Smith, son of Jacob, Sr., was born 15 June, 1772, and died 20 June, 1853. He married Susannah, daughter of Amos Lucas, U. E., on 23 Jan., 1795. I know nothing more about him than you already know. Here are a list of his children, all of whom were baptized in Ebenezer Lutheran Church, Fredericksburgh, except the first:

1. Amos Lucas, born 15 May, 1796; died ~~XXXXXX~~ 19 April, 1877.
2. Rachael, born 6 April, 1798.
3. Susanna, born 2 Mar., 1800.
4. Mary (Mary), born 19 Oct., 1801.
5. Samuel R., born 29 Dec., 1803.
6. James Wells, born 10 Feb., 1806.
7. Hiram (Hiram), born 2 May, 1808.
8. Dr. Martin Luther, born 18 Feb., 1810.
9. Sophiah, born 4 June, 1812.
10. Wellington, born 16 Sept., 1816.

Amos Lucas lived near Fort Edward. He did not cross into Canada until 1783. He remained behind to act as forwarder of despatches and assistant to Loyalist action. He lost 4 oxen, 5 cattle, 10 sheep, 24 hogs, utensils and furniture, taken at various times by both rebel and British forces. Thomas Sherwood signed a certificate to the effect that Amos Lucas was desired to stay to receive and procure intelligence by him from Dr. Smith. He died between 1783 and 1788, and his widow, Susanna, remarried Samuel Brownson, Junior, ~~Amos Lucas came to Fredericksburgh in 1784,~~ and in October of that year his name appears in the Muster Roll with a wife, one son over ten, one son under ten, and two daughters under ten. These children appear to be

1. George, who petitioned 18 Nov., 1797, as son of Amos Lucas. He married 12 Mar., 1799, Lydia, daughter of Joseph Jenks, U. E.
2. Susannah, born 23 Feb., 1778, who applied for land with her brother, Geo. She married 21 July, 1795, John George Smith.
3. Daniel, who applied for land as son of Amos Lucas, on 24 Apr., 1833.
4. Mary, wife of Simeon King. She applied for land as daughter of Amos Lucas 16 Feb., 1811.

There is a land petition in 1805 of the heirs of Amos Lucas. I do not have it. A letter to the Public Archives might get you a copy.

Dear friend:

Many thanks for your notes on the Smith family to which you belong. I hope that the notes above will repay you for them.

I hope to see you at Belleville in November.

Yours sincerely

Dr. H.C. Burleigh,
Genealogist,
Bath, Ontario

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

My husband's family claim for UEL descent has been cleared and my husband is an approved member of the Toronto Branch UEL. However, the genealogist at the time of application (Nov 1963) was Mrs. Ross Glassford. She was convinced that my husband's ancestor, Susannah Lucas, daughter of Amos Lucas, married Dr. George Smyth, an Irishman, whereas our records show him to have been John George Smyth, son of Jacob, a ^{Palatine} German from Albany county. I have recently looked at the published baptismal and marriage records for Fredericksburg in Ontario Historical Society Vol I and II, and there seems to be little doubt that John George (or Johan Georg) was the son of Jacob Schmidt. According to family legend, the son of this union, Amos Lucas Smyth, was twice married, first to Magdalene Huffman by whom he had 7 children, then to Elizabeth Leavens by whom he had 6 children. The offspring of the first marriage did not recognize the offspring of the second, because Elizabeth Leavens was a Quaker.

Do you have anything in your archives that would solve this incongruity ?

Another question. I've been trying to trace descendants of Molly Brant. Her son George has left a vague trail around Kingston and around Brantford and Hamilton. Do you have a marriage date for George Johnson or any facts about him at all ?

yours sincerely

Jean Johnston

ELIAS P. SMITH 1938

NAPANEE, Nov. 28—In poor health for about a year and confined to his bed for the past month, Elias P. Smith, one of the best known residents of the Township of Richmond passed peacefully away at the home of his son, Fred P. Smith, Belleville Road, on Sunday morning and the funeral will be held from the residence of his son on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 after which the remains will be brought to Riverside Cemetery, Napanee, for interment.

Just three years ago Mrs. Smith passed away while residing in Napanee. The late Mr. Smith was born on a farm near where he passed away and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John M. Smith. Practically the better part of his life was spent on the farm, but for several years he and Mrs. Smith resided on West Street, Napanee. Very congenial, he was exceptionally well liked. He was a life-long Liberal and also a life-long member of Grace United Church, Napanee. A daughter predeceased him many years ago.

An only son, Fred Smith, survives.

Considering the line-up the Garrison will be one of the strong teams of the city circuit with Younger-Lewis and Carr-Harris, stars of Kingston O.H.A. Junior B. champions, on one forward line while the defence is strengthened by the addition of Parnell, who played on the good Perth team last year.

Wally Elmer is coaching the Garrison team and his line up tonight will include Smith in goal with Carey, Parnell and McTaggart for defence and Younger-Lewis, Carr-Harris, Belwa, Armishaw, Clarke, Hanley, Stewart and Mosley on the forward lines.

Regiopolis and Dukes will meet in the junior game to start the double-header. Regi. tied in its first game of the junior circuit while the Dukes were dropped by the strong Perth team.

SMITH FAMILY.

Investigation into the ancestry of WILBUR SMITH, 312 Clark Street, Crockett, Cal.

Wilbur Smith states that his father was

Louis Napoleon Bonmatte Smith who was born in Napanee area in 1851;
who died in Oakland, Calif., in 1930.

Wilbur also states that his grandfather was

Matthias Chay Smith who was born near Napanee in 1832;
who died in California in 1915;
who left Napanee for the American West in 1878.

A Directory of 1865 for the Township of Richmond, Lemmon & Addington County reveals a Smith family on Lot 13, Concession (about 4 miles from Napanee).

These Smiths are	Matthias)
	John M.)	I consider these as Matthias, with
	Matthias C.)	his three sons, John M., Matthias C.
	Jacob.)	and Jacob.

An Atlas of 1878 for the same lot shows the following persons

Matthias
John M.

Voters List of 1880 shows the following men on this lot

Matthias)
Jacob)	on the southwest quarter of lot 13
Francis)
George M.)
John M.)	on lot 14 Elias P. is listed as farmer's
Elias P.)	son.

Voters List of 1885 lists them as

Matthias
Jacob	This would indicate that John M. had died
Francis	between 1880 and 1885.
Elias

A Directory of 1904 shows the following on this lot:

Francis
Jacob
G. M.

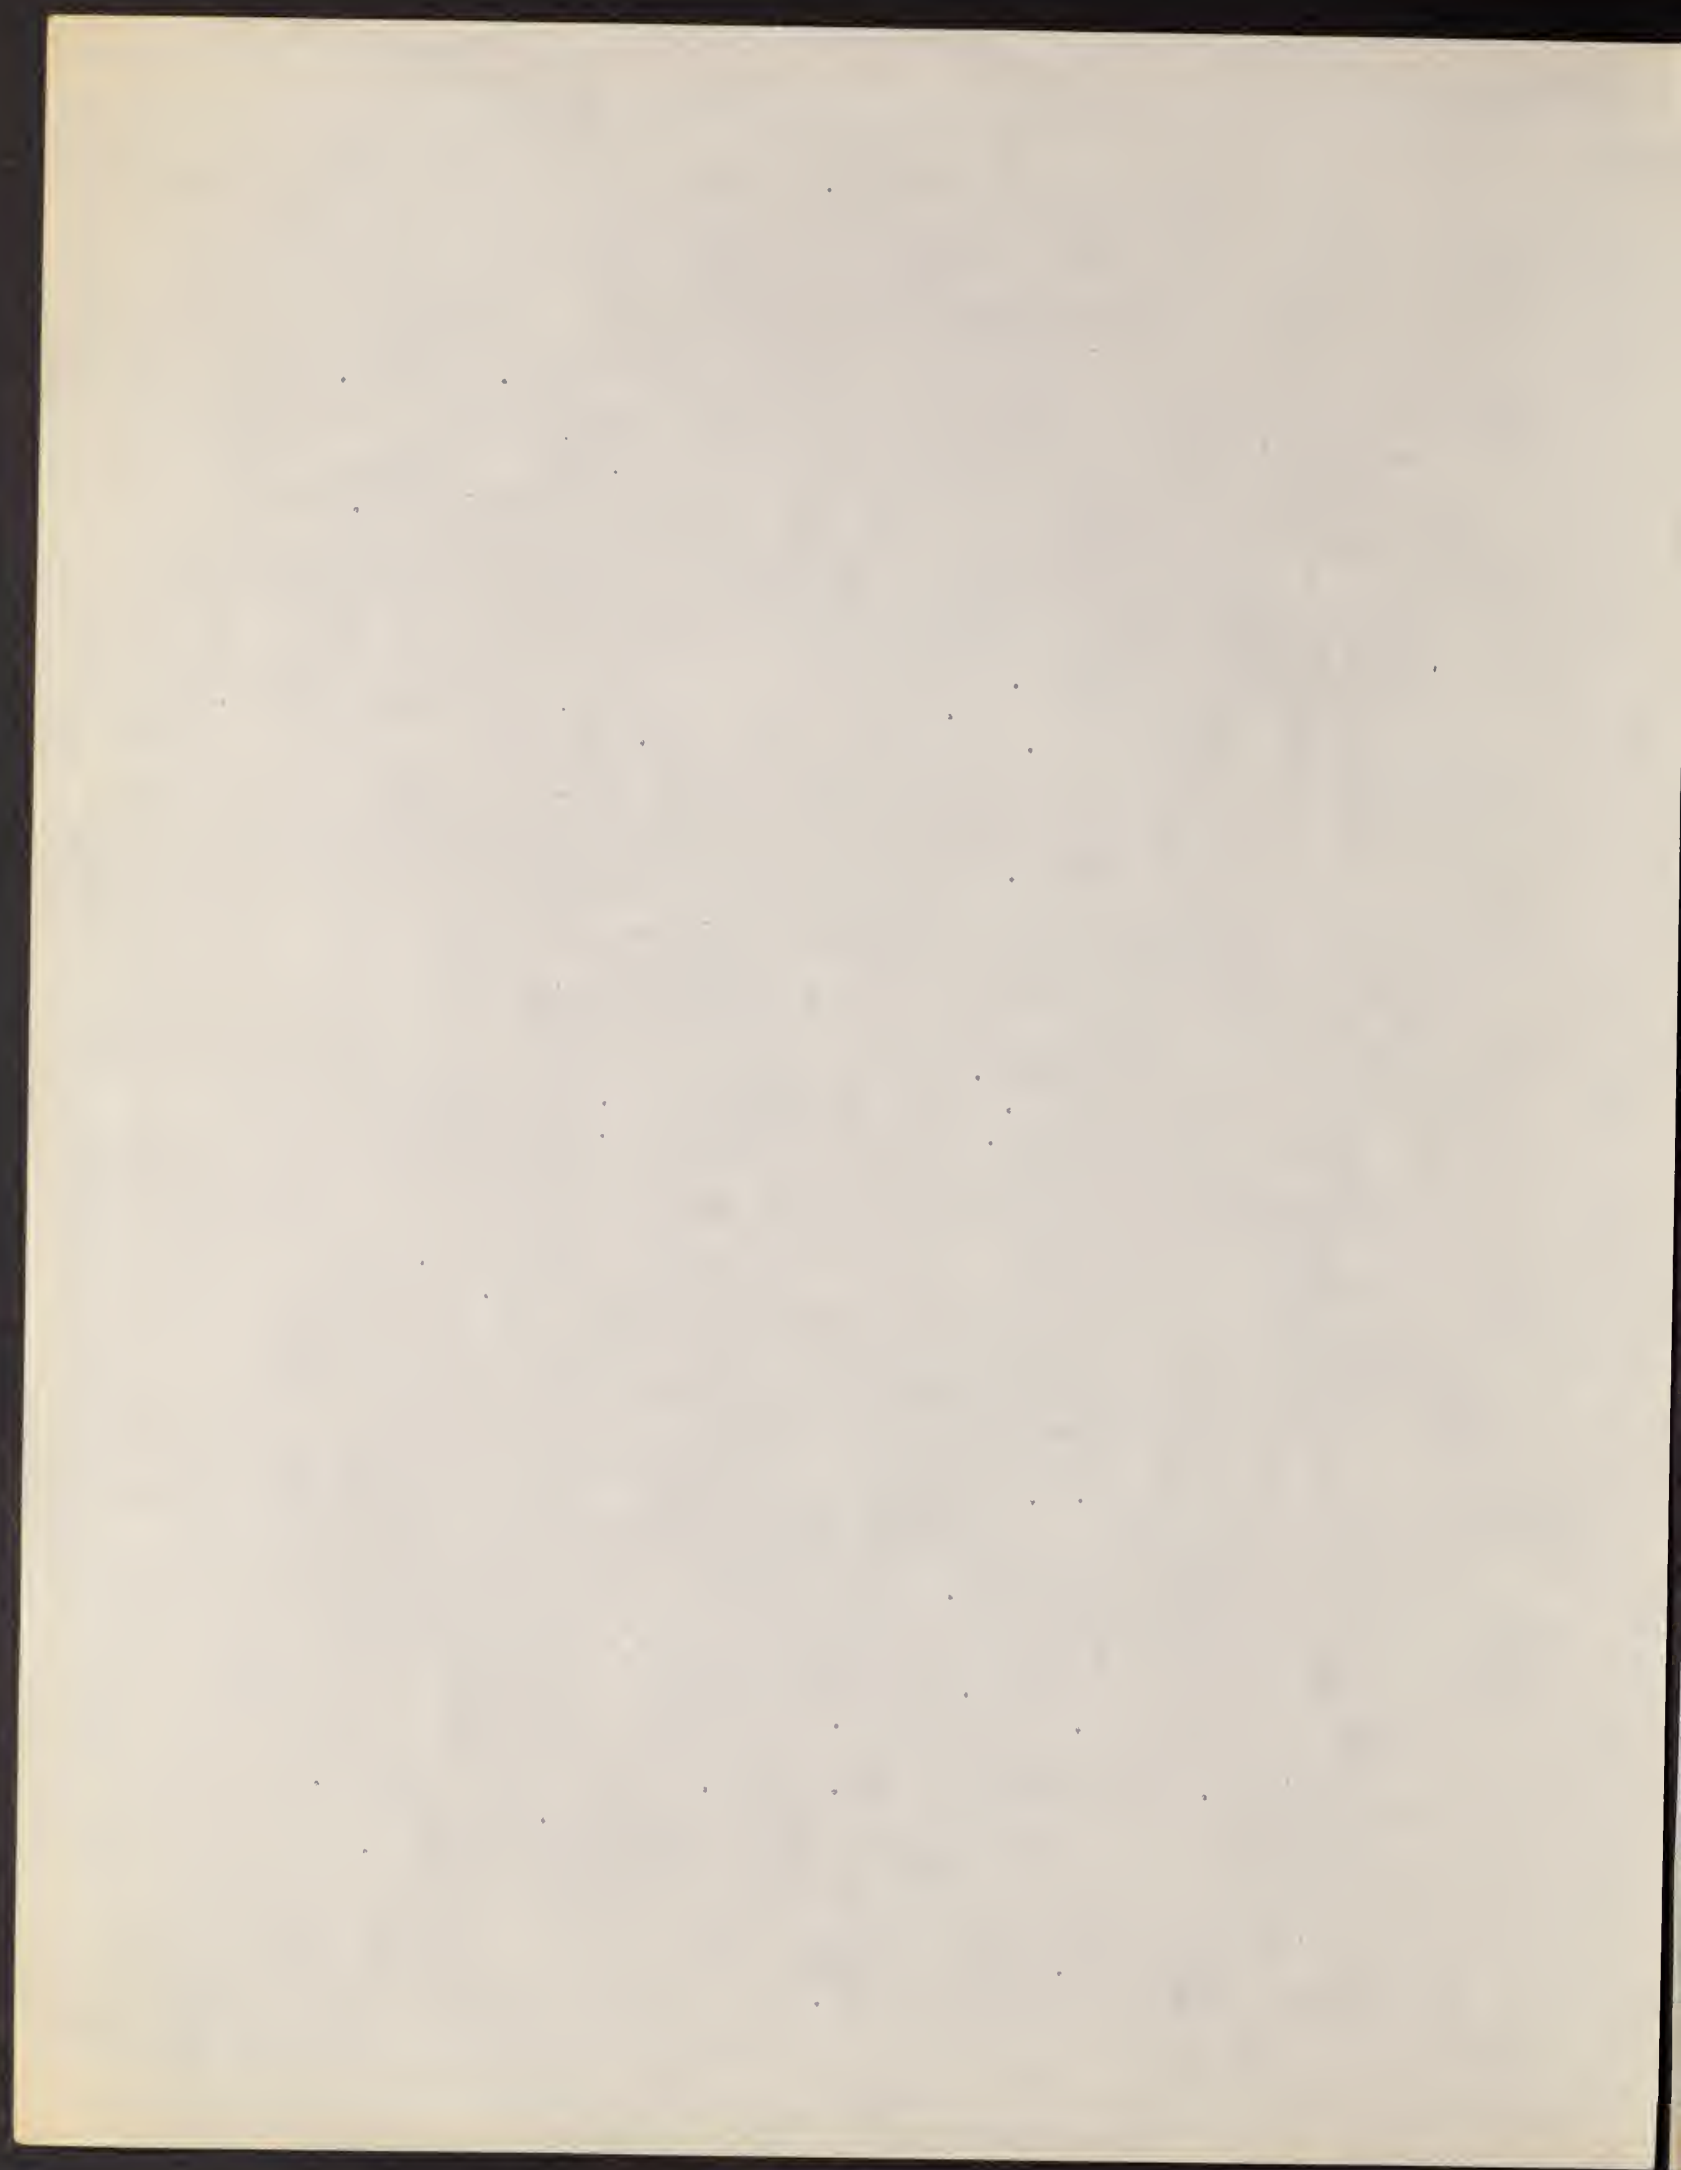

Voters List of 1960 shows that this lot had passed out of the hands of the Smith Family.

It is possible to trace the Smith connection of Lot 13, Concession 3, Richmond township from 1865 to 1904. I suspect that Matthias Smith had the following sons: John M. Matthias C. Jacob

Matthias C. left the farm in 1868. John M. was father of George M. &
Elias P.

Jacob was father of Francis.

The above suspicions could be proved by a visit to the Registry Office in Napanee. This would reveal the original owner on this lot, likely father of the senior Matthias. There also might be a will which would throw a good deal of light on the early family.

As you can realize, Smith is a very common name. There were at least twenty different Loyalist Smiths among the pioneer settlers in this area. However, there was only one who originally settled in Richmond Township. He appears to be your earliest Canadian ancestor, seeing that he had a son named Matthias.

I should explain that a Loyalist was entitled to 200 acres of land. In addition, each of his children was entitled to the same amount, the sons when they reached 21 years of age, and the daughters when they married or reached 21 years.

The following is a list of the Richmond Township Smith.

John Smith of Richmond.

son Caleb of Richmond, authorized 200 acres on 24 April, 1835

" John do do do do

" Matthias do do do do

" Peter do do do do

daughter Elizabeth, married ----- Stafford of Tyendinaga, authorized 200 acres on 24 April, 1835.

do Margaret, married Ralph P. Abbott of Tyendinaga, authorized 200 acres on 7 Jan., 1836.

do Mary, married ----- MacDonald of Richmond, authorized 200 acres on 6 Nov., 1834.

do Rebecca, married Henry Schermerhorn of Richmond, authorized 200 acres on 1 April, 1840.

It is very possible that the Matthias, above-named, was the owner of Lot 13, Concession 3, Richmond, who, we assume, was the father of Matthias C. Proof of this connection might result from the investigation suggested at the bottom of the previous page.

There is a Claim by a Loyalist named John Smith who might be your ancestor. I give it for what it is worth, reminding you that further proof is required before you can claim him as an ancestor.

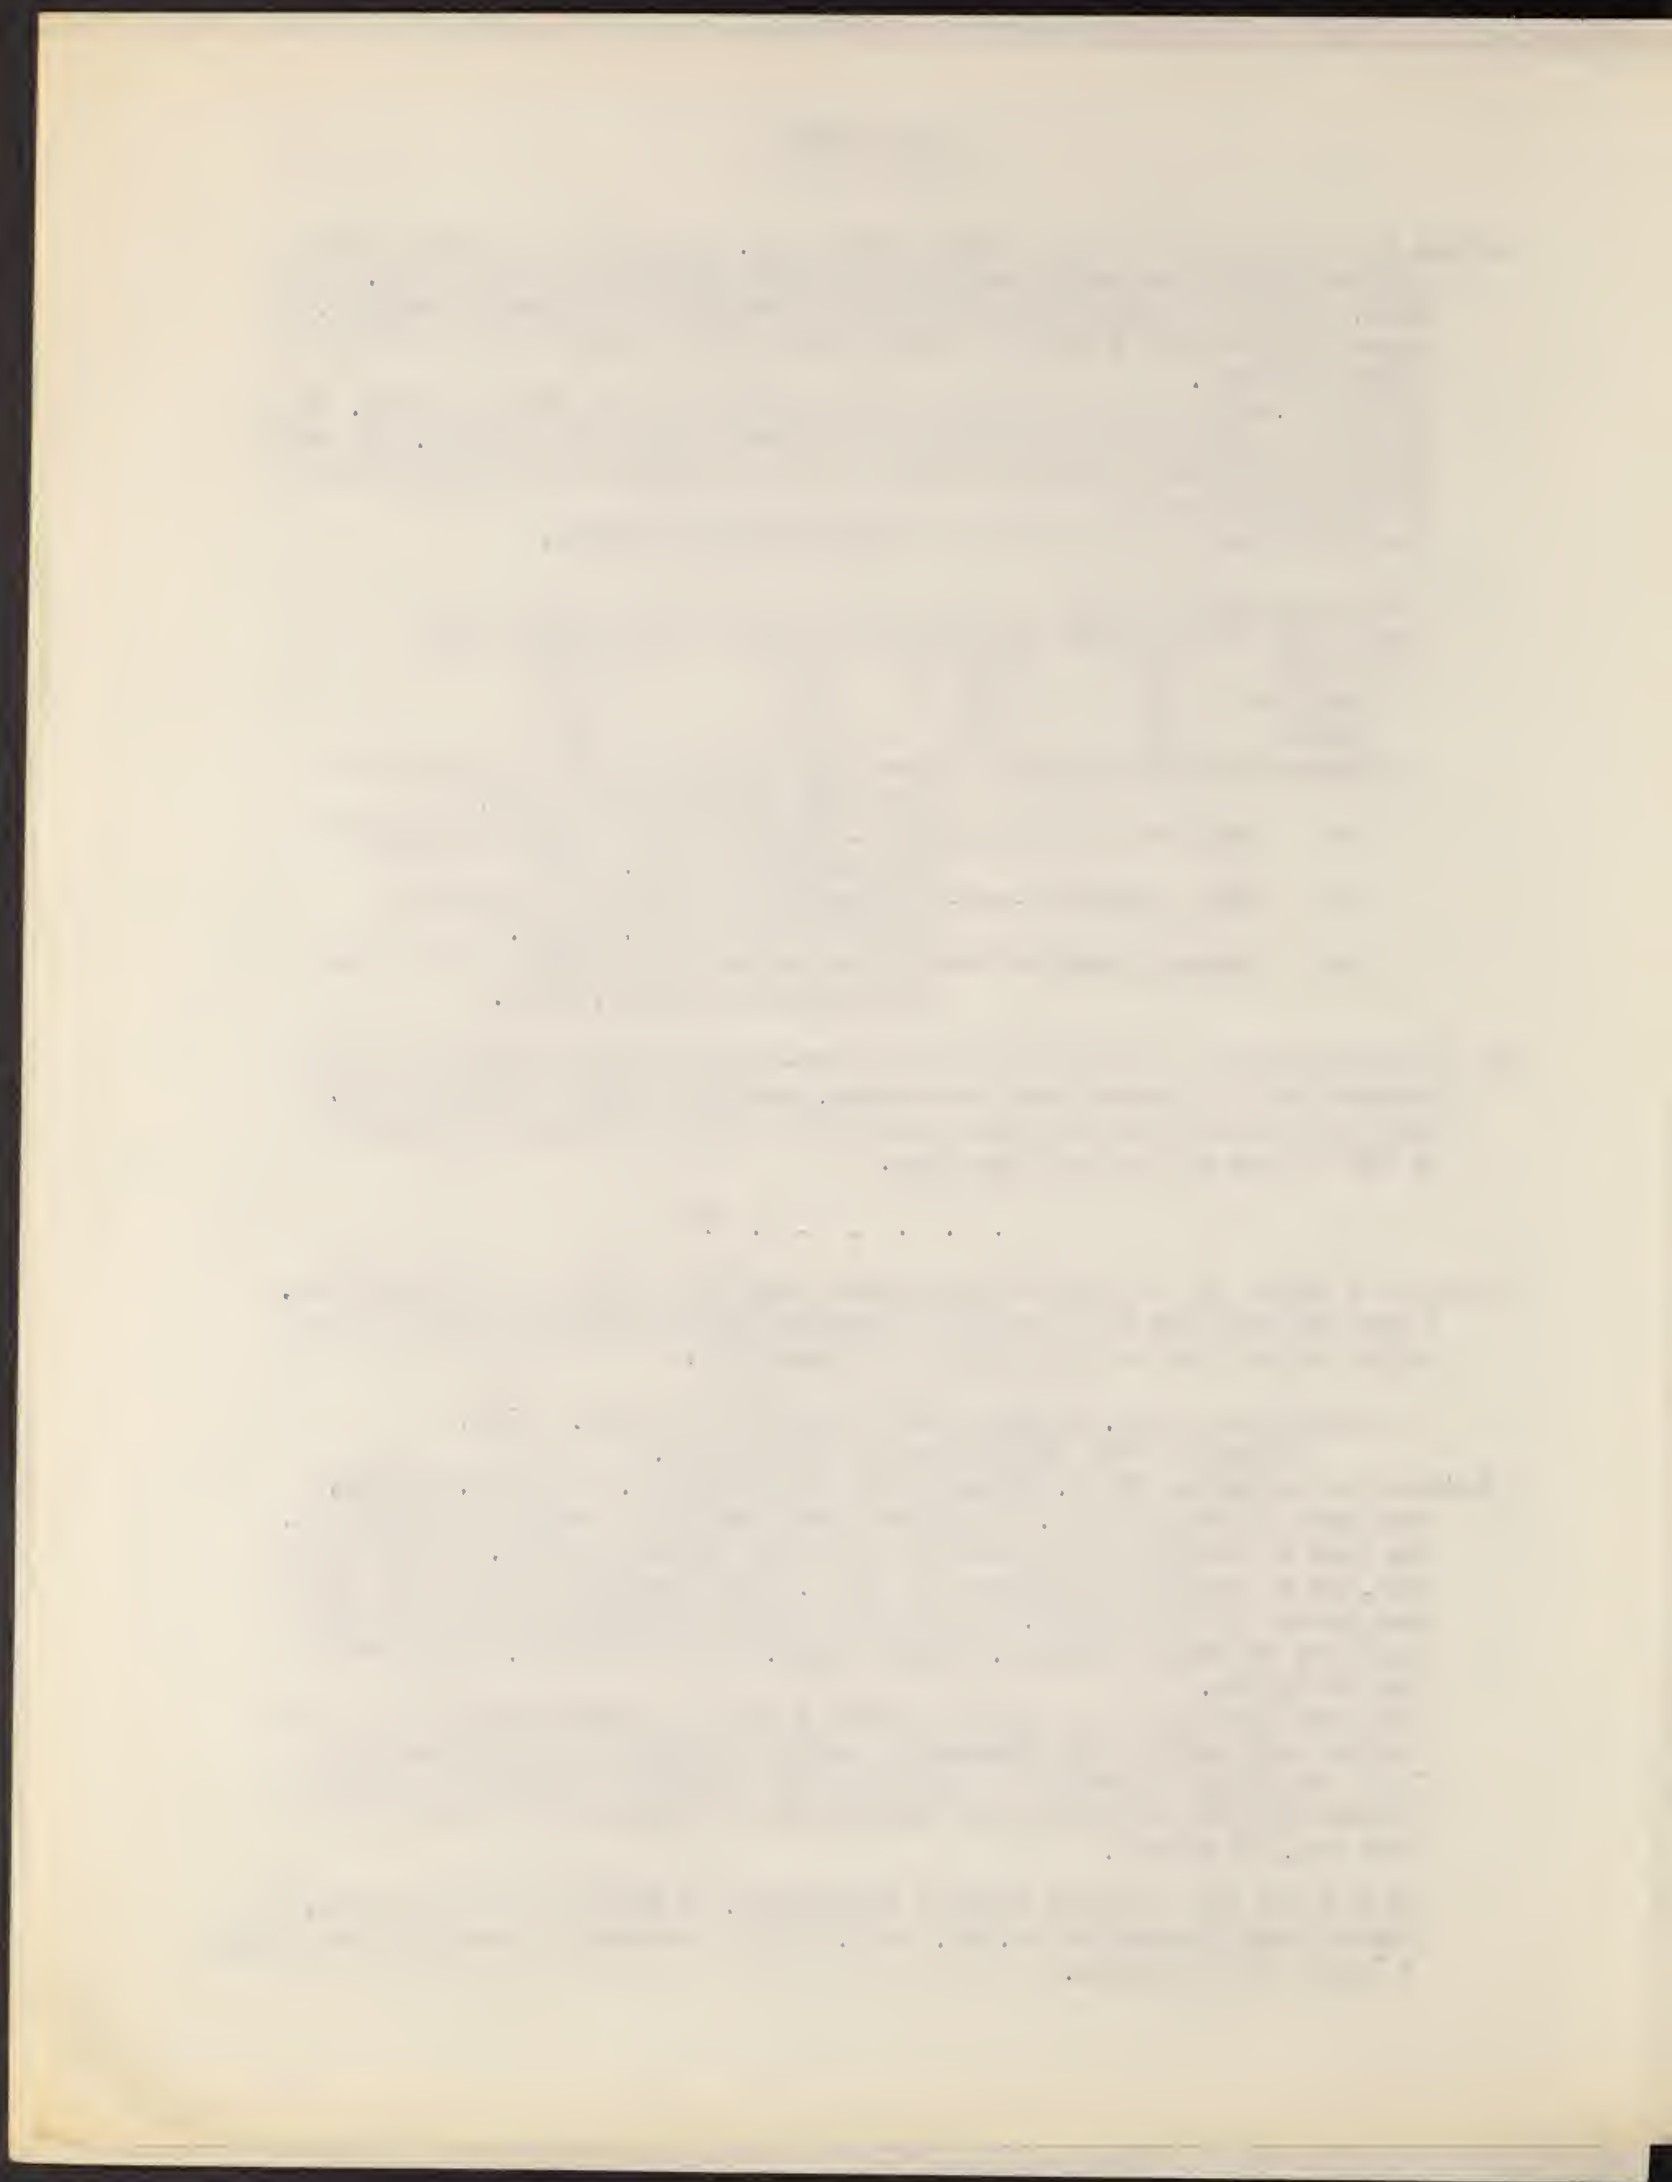

Loyalist Claim No. 1202, dated at Montreal, 25 Feb., 1783.

Claim of JOHN SMITH, late of Skeensboro.

Claimant Says: He was at St. Johns in the Fall of 1783. Is a Nat. of Eng., has been 37 years in Am., lived at Skeensboro when Rebellion broke out. He came to Canada in the year 80, & joined Rogers Rangers. Says he was old, or he should have joined at first. His principles were known and he was driven off his place. He had frequently harboured Persons who were sent out on Secret Service. Served 2 yrs. in the Rangers. Now lives at Bay of Quinte.

Produces Certificate to his Character & to his having served in the war before last in the 44th Regiment & to his Loyalty & service during the late Rebellion, signed by a great many of his neighbours, by way of recommending him to Charity, he having lost his House & Property by fire last May, 12 months.

He had 111 acres Tenant Land at Skeensboro. He had the Lease in 1766. It was a Lease forever at 1s. pr. Acre. He had cleared 24 acres, a good house, a large Barn & Stable.

Lost 1 Horse, 2 Cows, 16 Hogs, Grain, Hay, &c. This was at Kingsbury, He had got some lands there from a friend, after he quitted Skeensboro. He left all these things there when he went into Canada.

James Jackson, Witness:

Knew John Smith. He was always a good Loyalist. He had a farm at Skeensboro, 24 acres Clear. He had been a good while in Possession. After he was driven from Skeensboro. He had some lands & a little stock at Skeensboro, 2 Cows, 1 Horse, Hogs, &c., all left behind when he came away.

List of King's (Rogers) Rangers at St. Johns, 21 January, 1783, includes

John Smith, aged 53 years, born in England, 5' 8" in height, 2 years & 4 months service.

(Note: This is almost certainly the man referred to in the above claim).

Return of Discharged Soldiers & Loyalists in Township 3 (Fredericksburgh) dated 6 October, 1784.

John Smith, with a wife. His lands not yet run out.

(Note: This means that he had not come to the Bay of Quinte in 1784, as he had rented lands in Lower Canada, and his lease had not yet run out.)

Return of Women & Children belonging to King's Rangers, St. John, 30 July, 1781.

John Smith's wife, aged 49 years; no family.

I hope that you do not put too much confidence in this John Smith being your first ancestor in Canada. He may be the John Smith, whose wife, Mary, was buried in Fredericksburgh on 7 May, 1798. It is also too much to think that he was the John who married Sarah Fisher on 22 Dec., 1800. Perhaps the latter John was a son of the John who put in the Loyalist claim.

There is much that can be done to clear up your ancestry in Ontario. I can suggest several things.

1. Visit to Registry Office in Napanee to clear up the various owners of Lot 13, concession 3, looking also for a will or two of ancestors of Matthias C.
2. Search of cemeteries in that locality for Smiths of this family.
3. Search in census records of 1851 and 1861 for Smiths in Richmond.

I have a few more items having to do with your family.

Riverside Cemetery, Napanee.

Henry Schernerhorn, died 24 Aug. 1887, aged 93 yrs. 7 months 29 days.

Rebecca, his wife, died 10 Oct., 1879, aged 82 yrs. 1 month, 21 days.

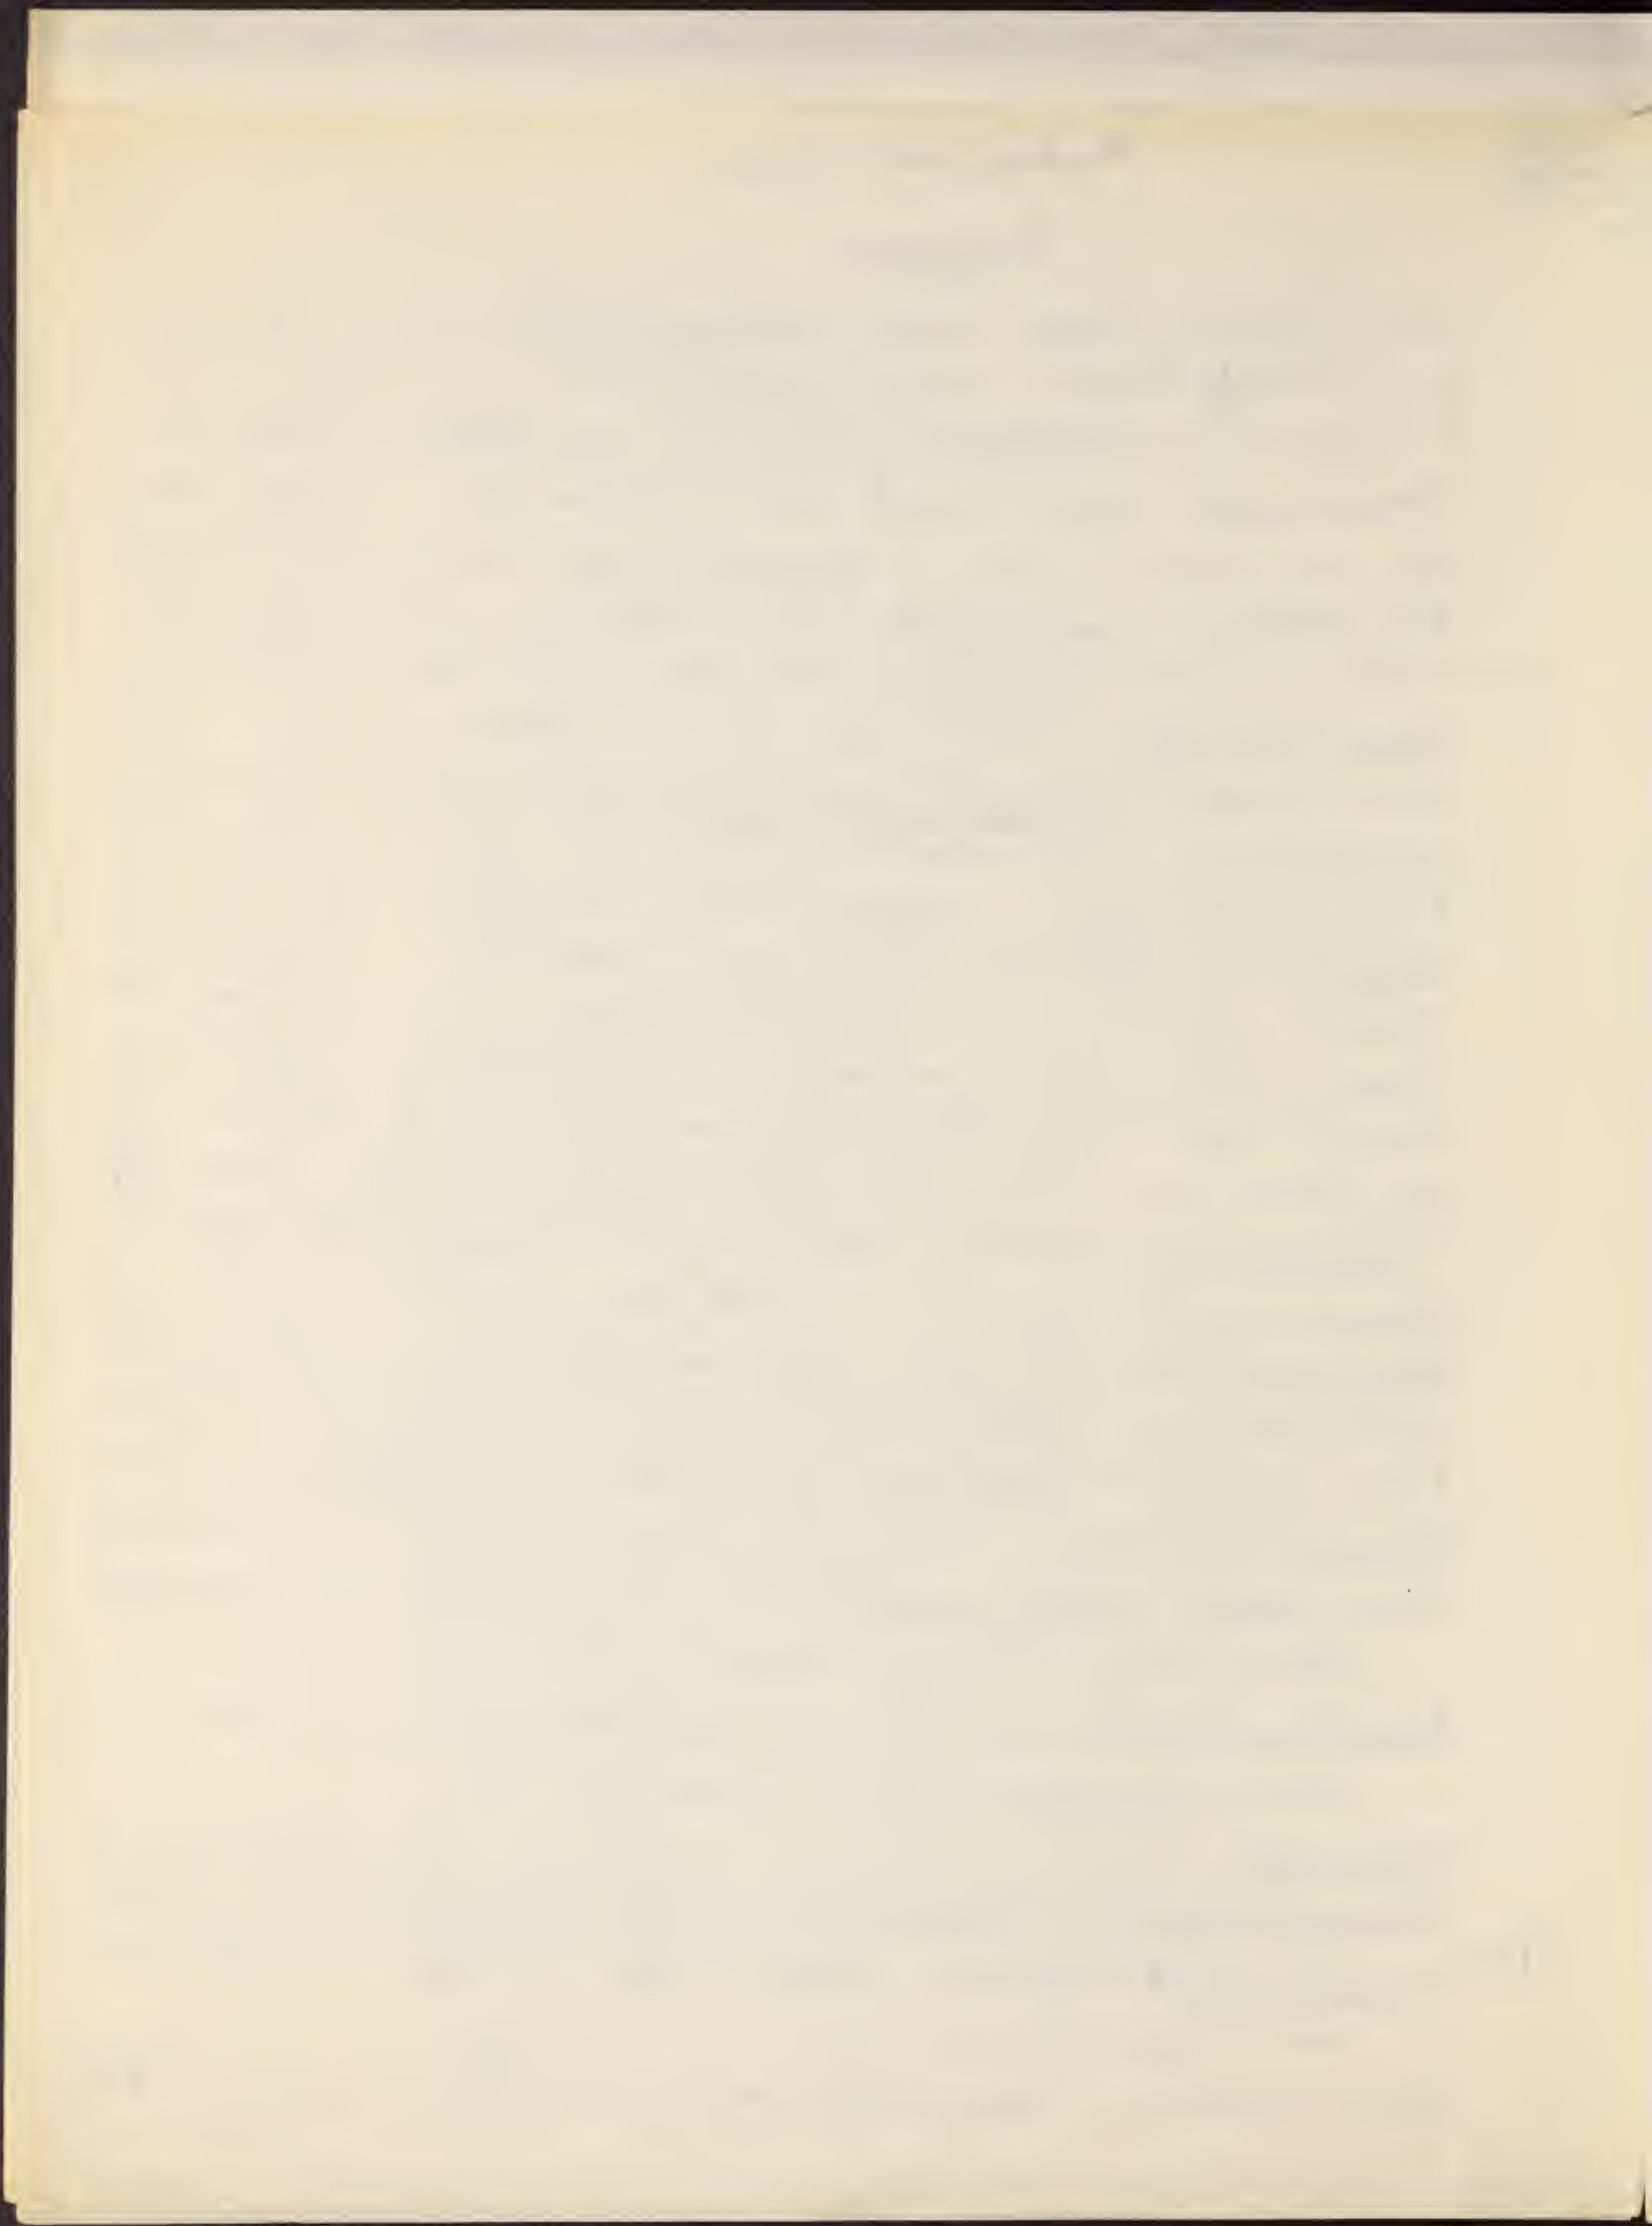

She was sister of Matthias, and likely aunt of Matthias C.

HERBERT SMITH

Sharbot Lake, Feb. 4—Mrs. Herbert Smith passed away in Kingston General Hospital on Jan. 28, after twelve weeks illness. Mrs. Smith was treasurer of Comp Court for many years and was a faithful member of the United Church and a regular attendant at Sunday School. Besides her husband are left to mourn three sons, Eugene, Kenneth, George, all living here. The funeral was held on Thursday in the United Church. The church was packed, the numerous wreaths and sprays were beautiful. The remains were taken to Oconto Cemetery by train. Mrs. Smith is greatly mourned by all here.

Well - Known "Vet" Dr. H. W. Smith Dies

The community was shocked to hear of the sudden death Saturday of Dr. H. W. Smith, well - known throughout this area as a veterinary surgeon for 47 years.

Although he had been in failing health for some years he had carried on with his work and many times sacrificed his personal comfort for the call of duty. This was evidenced in the many tributes paid to him by friends in the farming community, as a citizen, doctor and friend.

Dr. Harold Ward Smith, 67, was born and raised on a farm in the Morven district, one of a family of seven sons and three daughters, all of whom predeceased him but the youngest brother, Wilfred G. Smith, Napanee.

He received his education at the Veterinary College at Toronto, graduating at the age of 20, and started practice in Napanee, where for almost half-a-century he served the community faithfully far and near. He was considered one of the best "horse doctors" as they were called in those days, practising in Ontario.

Besides his brother, Wilfred, he leaves to mourn his loss his wife, the former Carmen Mills, and two sons, Robert and Dr. H. M. Smith, both of Napanee, and three grandchildren, David, Donald and Debbie Smith. A third son, Donald, died in a car accident five years ago.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Tierney Funeral Home here to Trinity United Church, of which the family are members. Rev. W. K. Pace, the minister, officiated. Interment was at Riverside Cemetery, Napanee.

caught by local trappers was 7,135 as compared to 9,927 for 1957-58.

A summary of the harvest over the past two years is as follows:

In 1958-59 the number of beaver caught was 5,733, 11 fisher 1 marten 1,256 mink, and 134 otter. In 1957-58, 8,233 beaver were caught, 25 fisher, 1 marten, 1,521 mink, and 147 otter.

Returns from the muskrat harvest are not complete as yet but it is expected to be down from last year's harvest which was 42,898.

The total season's revenue for the trappers will amount to over $124,000.00.

ARE ATLANTIC SALMON RETURNING TO LAKE ONTARIO?

On June 12, commercial fisherman Glen VanCott, of Picton, found a most unusual fish in his nets. A big silver fish with scattered small black spots, it weighed 15.9 lbs. and measured 35 inches from snout to tail-tip. The fish was brought to Picton where it was identified as a male Atlantic Salmon. Scale samples were examined and its age placed at four years.

Lake Ontario was once the home of a land-locked form of the Atlantic salmon (Salmo salar). These fish lived in the lake, apparently reaching large sizes, and returned to the rivers entering the lake to spawn. They were considered extinct in the lake by the end of the 19th century. The first public fish breeding station in North America was

SMITH FAMILY.

Investigation into the ancestry of WILBUR SMITH, 312 Clark Street, Crockett, Cal.

Wilbur Smith states that his father was

Louis Napoleon Bonaparte Smith who was born in Napanee area in 1861;
who died in Oakland, Calif., in 1930.

Wilbur also states that his grandfather was

Matthias Chay Smith who was born near Napanee in 1832;
who died in California in 1915;
who left Napanee for the American West in 1873.

A Directory of 1865 for the Township of Richmond, Lennox & Adirington County reveals a Smith family on Lot 12, Concession (about 1 mile from Napanee).

These Smiths are	Matthias)
	John M.)	I consider these as Matthias, with
	Matthias C.)	his three sons, John M., Matthias C.
	Jacob.)	and Jacob.

An Atlas of 1878 for the same lot shows the following persons

Matthias
John M.

Voters List of 1880 shows the following men on this lot

Matthias)
Jacob)	on the southwest quarter of lot 13
Francis)
George M.)
John M.)	on lot 14 Elias P. is listed as farmer's
Elias P.)	son.

Voters List of 1885 lists them as

Matthias
Jacob	This would indicate that John M. had died
Francis	between 1880 and 1885.
Elias

A Directory of 1904 shows the following on this lot:

Francis
Jacob
G. M.

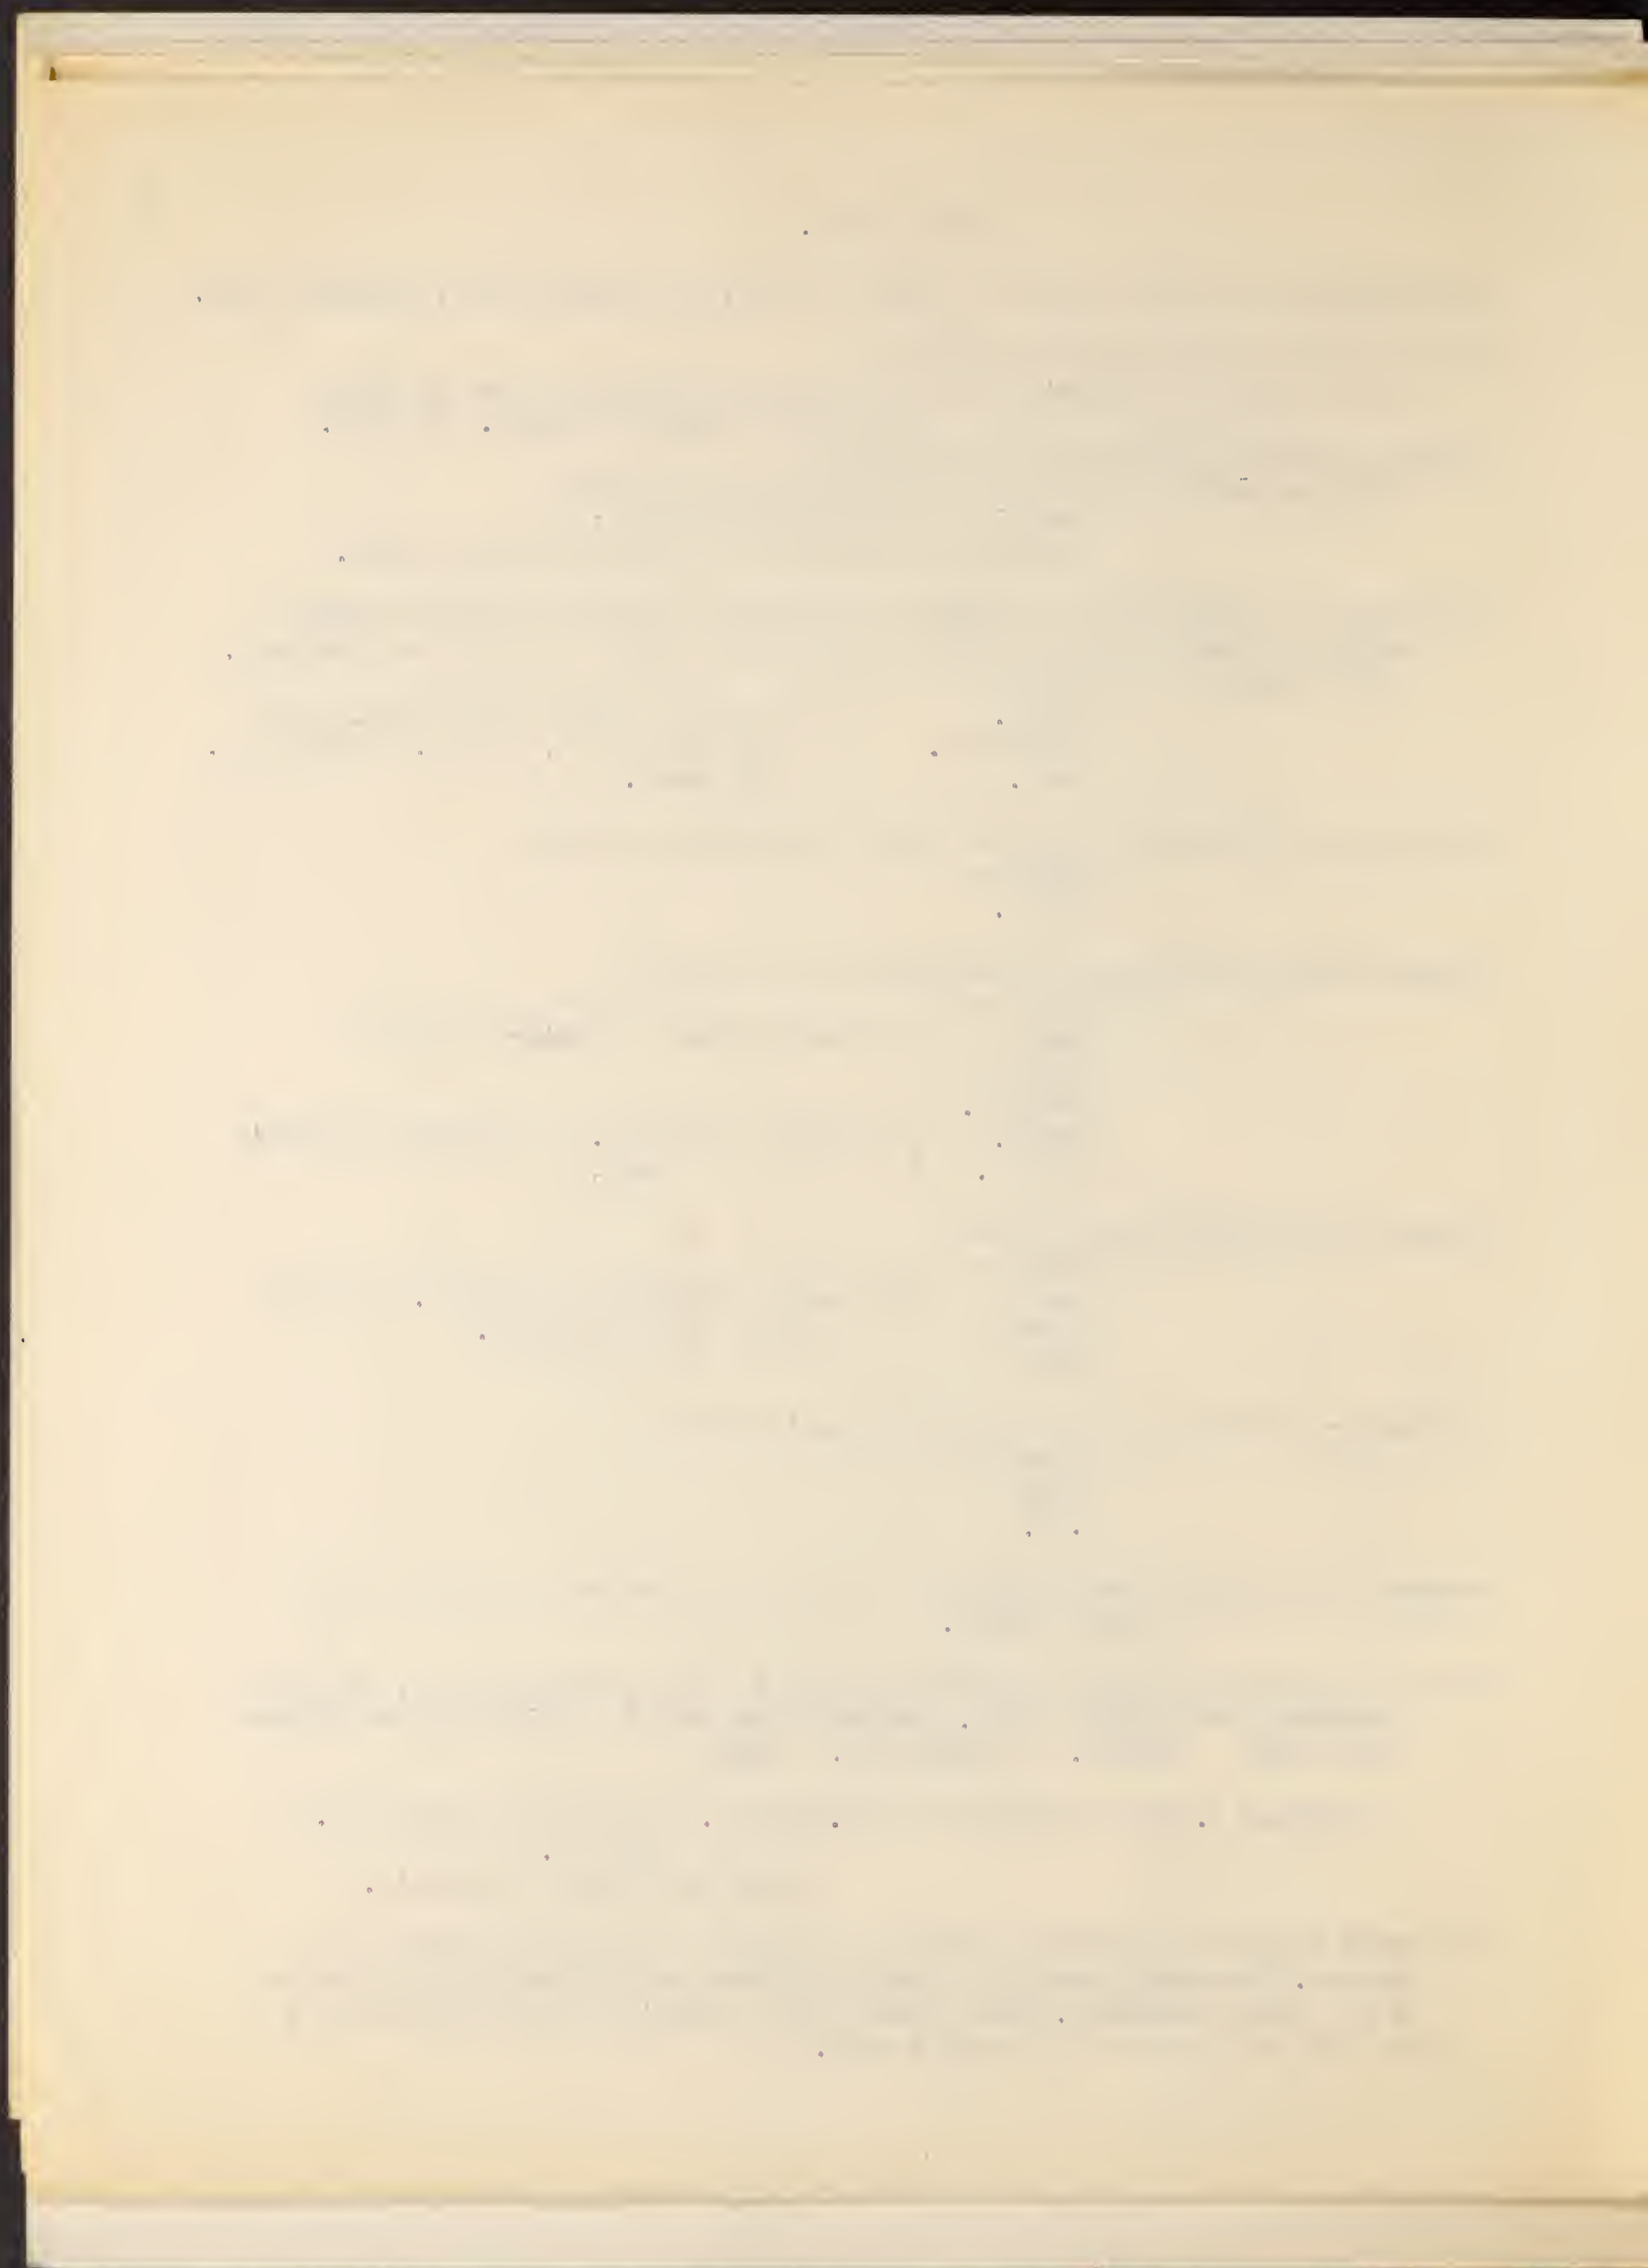

Voters List of 1960 shows that this lot had passed out of the hands of the Smith Family.

It is possible to trace the Smith connection of Lot 13, Concession 3, Richmond township from 1865 to 1904. I suspect that Matthias Smith had the following sons: John M. Matthias C. Jacob

Matthias C. left the farm in 1868. John M. was father of George M. &
Elias P.

Jacob was father of Francis.

The above suspicions could be proved by a visit to the Registry Office in Napanee. This would reveal the original owner on this lot, likely father of the senior Matthias. There also might be a will which would throw a good deal of light on the early family.

As you can realize, Smith is a very common name. There were at least twenty different Loyalist Smiths among the pioneer settlers in this area. However, there was only one who originally settled in Richmond Township. He appears to be your earliest Canadian ancestor, seeing that he had a son named Matthias.

I should explain that a Loyalist was entitled to 200 acres of land. In addition, each of his children was entitled to the same amount, the sons when they reached 21 years of age, and the daughters when they married or reached 21 years.

The following is a list of the Richmond Township Smith.

John Smith of Richmond.

son Caleb of Richmond, authorized 200 acres on 24 April, 1835

" John do do do do

" Mathias do do do do

daughter Elizabeth, married ----- Stafford of Tyendinaga, authorized 200 acres on 24 April, 1835.

do Margaret, married Ralph P. Abbott of Tyendinaga, authorized 200 acres on 7 Jan., 1836.

do Mary, married ----- MacDonald of Richmond, authorized 200 acres on 6 Nov., 1834.

do Rebecca, married Henry Schermerhorn of Richmond, authorized 200 acres on 1 April, 1840.

It is very possible that the Matthias, above-named, was the owner of Lot 13, Concession 3, Richmond, who, we assume, was the father of Matthias C. Proof of this connection might result from the investigation suggested at the bottom of the previous page.

There is a Claim by a Loyalist named John Smith who might be your ancestor. I give it for what it is worth, reminding you that further proof is required before you can claim him as an ancestor.

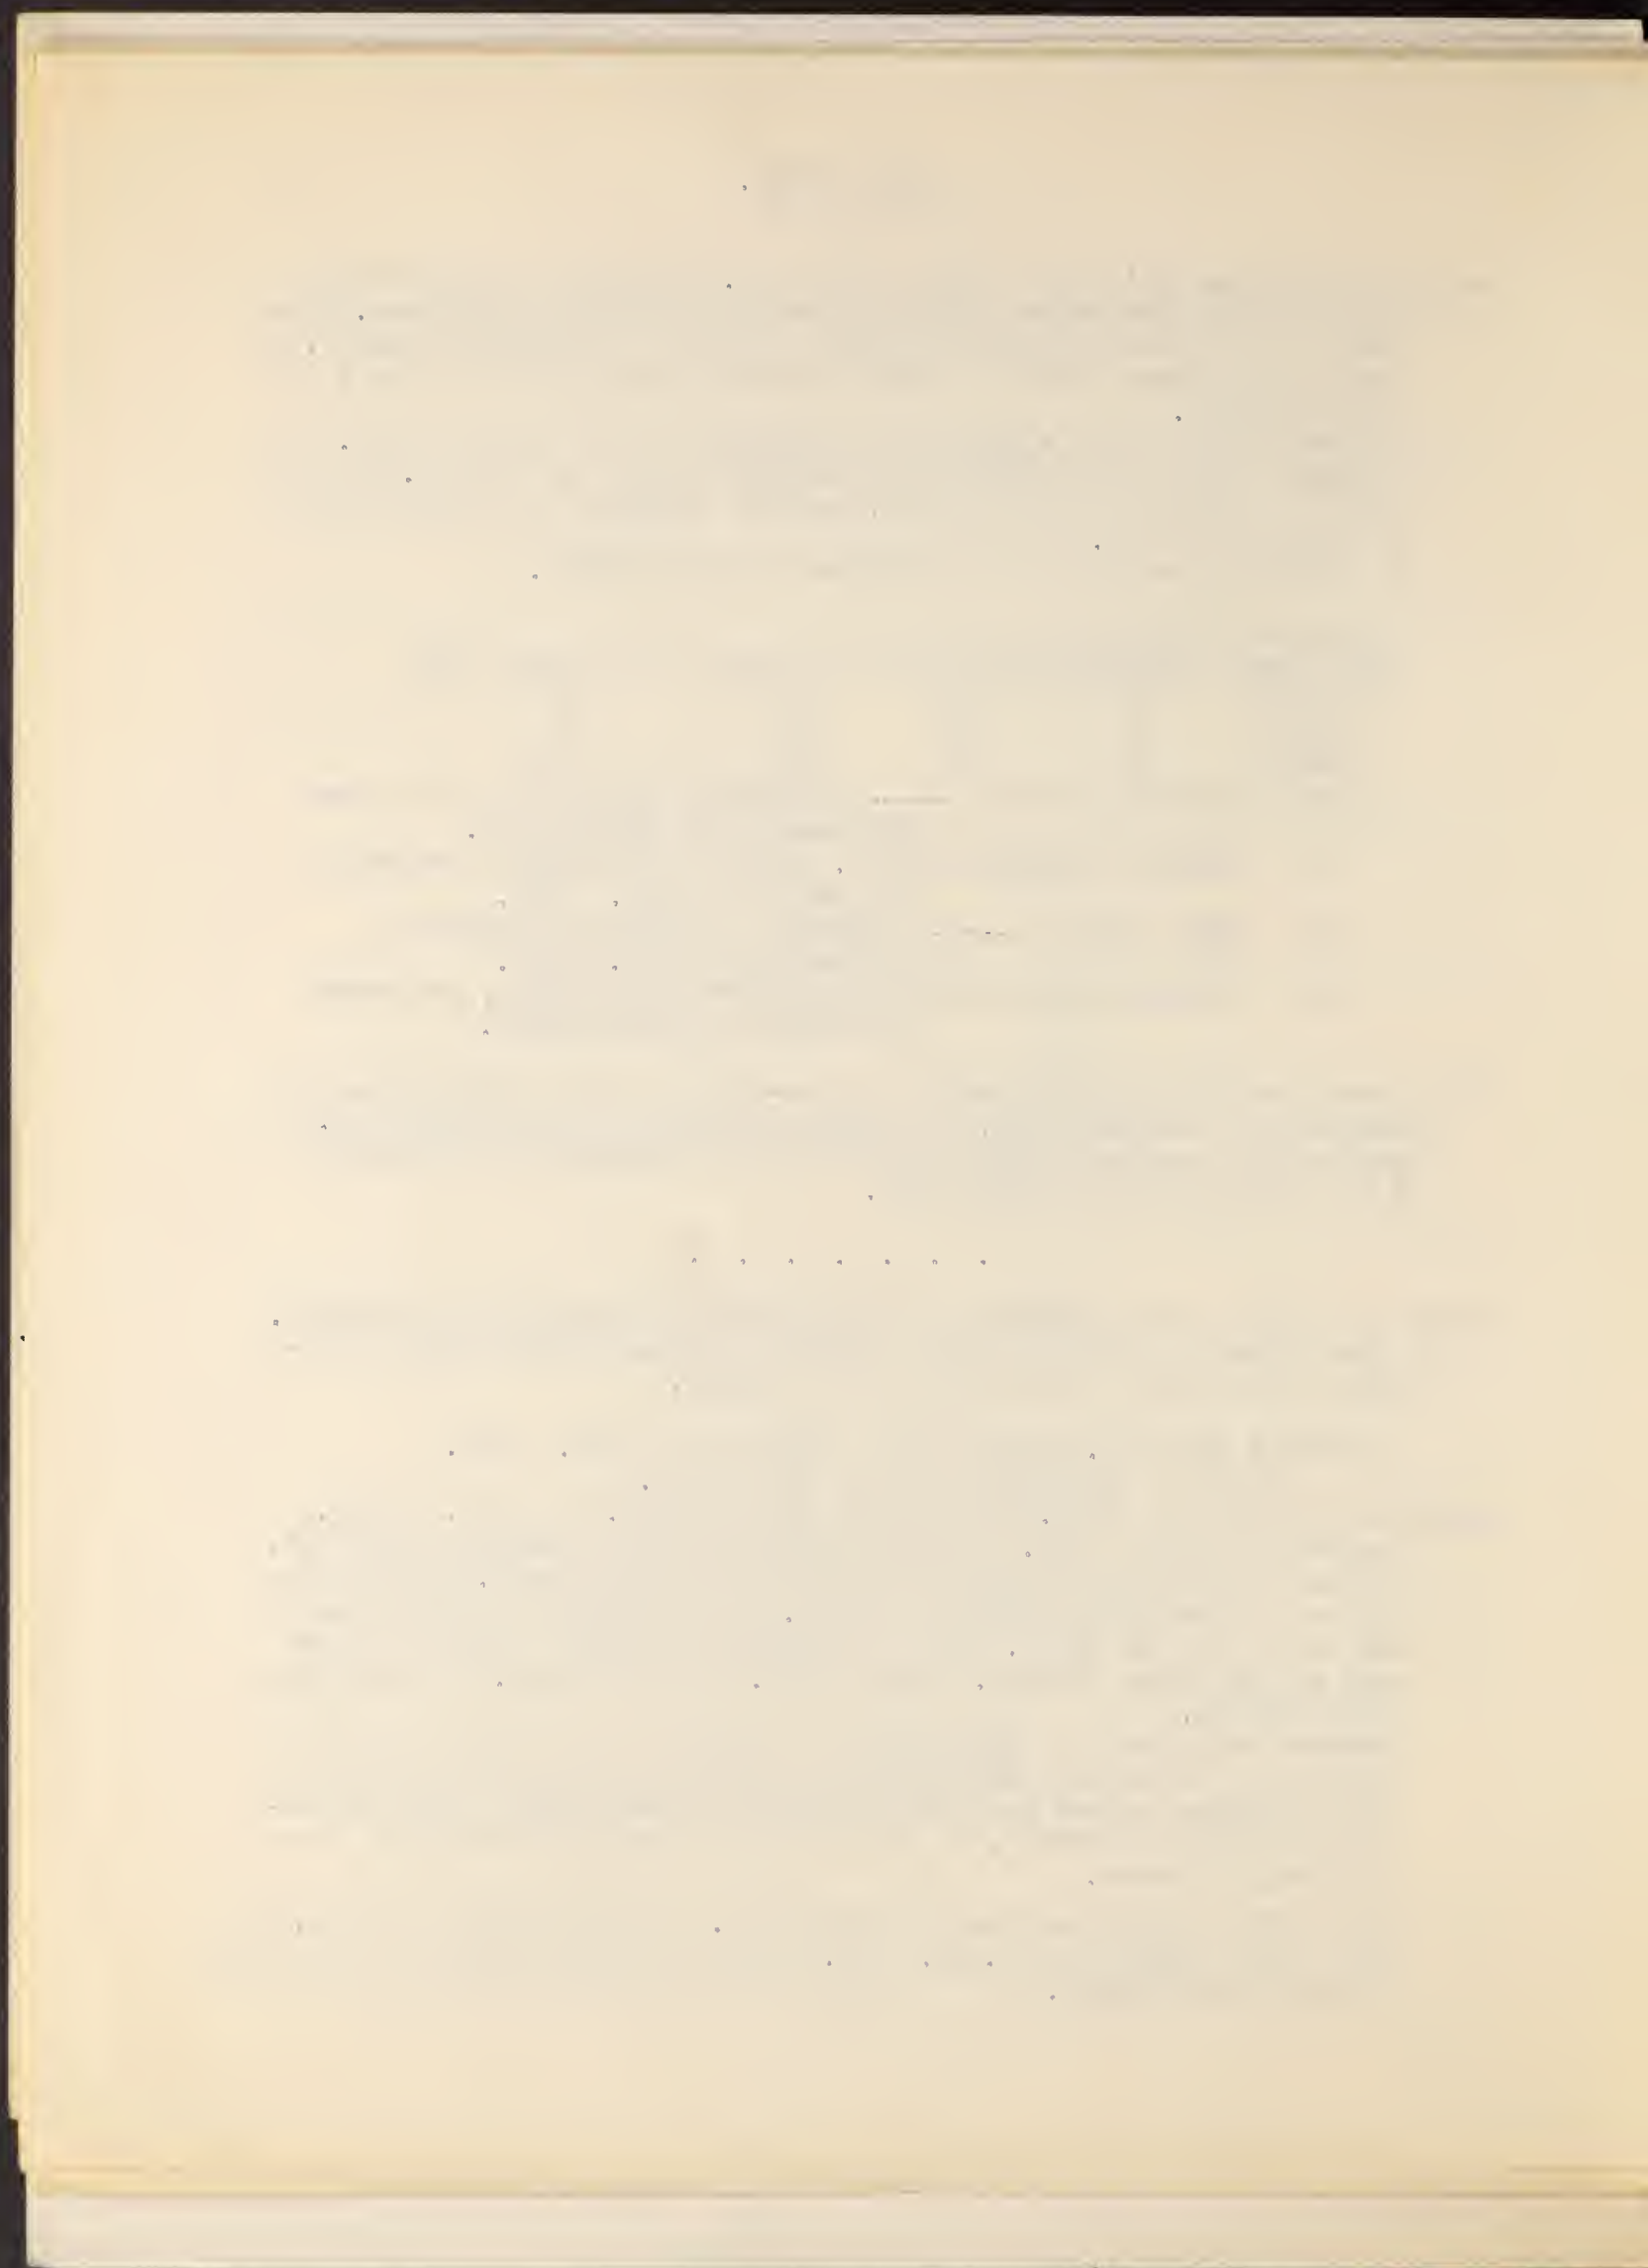

Loyalist Claim No. 1202, dated at Montreal, 25 Feb., 1783.

Claim of JOHN SMITH, late of Greensboro.

Claimant Says: He was at St. Johns in the Fall of 1783. Is a Nat. of Eng., has been 37 years in Am., lived at Greensboro when Rebellion broke out. He came to Canada in the year 80, & joined Rogers Rangers. Says he was old, or he should have joined at first. His principles were known and he was driven off his place. He had frequently harboured Persons who were sent out on Secret Service. Served 2 yrs. in the Rangers. Now lives at Bay of Quinte.

Produces Certificate to his Character & to his having served in the war before last in the 44th Regiment & to his Loyalty & service during the late Rebellion, signed by a great many of his neighbours, by way of recommending him to Charity, he having lost his House & Property by fire last May, 12 months.

He had 111 acres Tenant Land at Greensboro. He had the Lease in 1767. It was a Lease forever at 1s. pr. Acre. He had cleared 24 acres, a good house, a large Barn & Stable.

Lost 1 Horse, 2 Cows, 10 Hogs, Grain, Hay, &c. This was at Kingsbury, He had got some lands there from a friend, after he quitted Greensboro. He left all these things there when he went into Canada.

James Jackson, Witness:

Knew John Smith. He was always a good Loyalist. He had a farm at Greensboro, 24 acres clear. He had been a good while in Possession. After he was driven from Greensboro. He had some lands & a little stock at Greensboro, 2 Cows, 1 Horse, Hogs, &c., all left behind when he came away.

List of King's (Rogers) Rangers at St. Johns, 21 January, 1733, includes

John Smith, aged 53 years, born in England, ~~522~~ 5' 3" in height, 2 years & 4 months service.

(Note: This is almost certainly the man referred to in the above claim).

Return of Discharged Soldiers & Loyalists in Township 3 (Fredericksburgh) dated 6 October, 1784.

John Smith, with a wife.

His lands not yet run out.

(Note: This means that he had not come to the Bay of Quinte in 1784, as he had rented lands in Lower Canada, and his lease had not yet run out.)

Return of Women & Children belonging to King's Rangers, St. John, 30 July, 1781.

John Smith's wife, aged 49 years; no family.

I hope that you do not put too much confidence in this John Smith being your first ancestor in Canada. He may be the John Smith, whose wife, Mary, was buried in Fredericksburgh on 7 May, 1798. It is also too much to think that he was the John who married Sarah Fisher on 22 Dec., 1800. Perhaps the latter John was a son of the John who put in the Loyalist claim.

There is much that can be done to clear up your ancestry in Ontario. I can suggest several things.

1. Visit to Registry Office in Napanee to clear up the various owners of Lot 13, concession 3, looking also for a will or two of ancestors of Matthias C.
2. Search of cemeteries in that locality for Smiths of this family.
3. Search in census records of 1851 and 1861 for Smiths in Richmond.

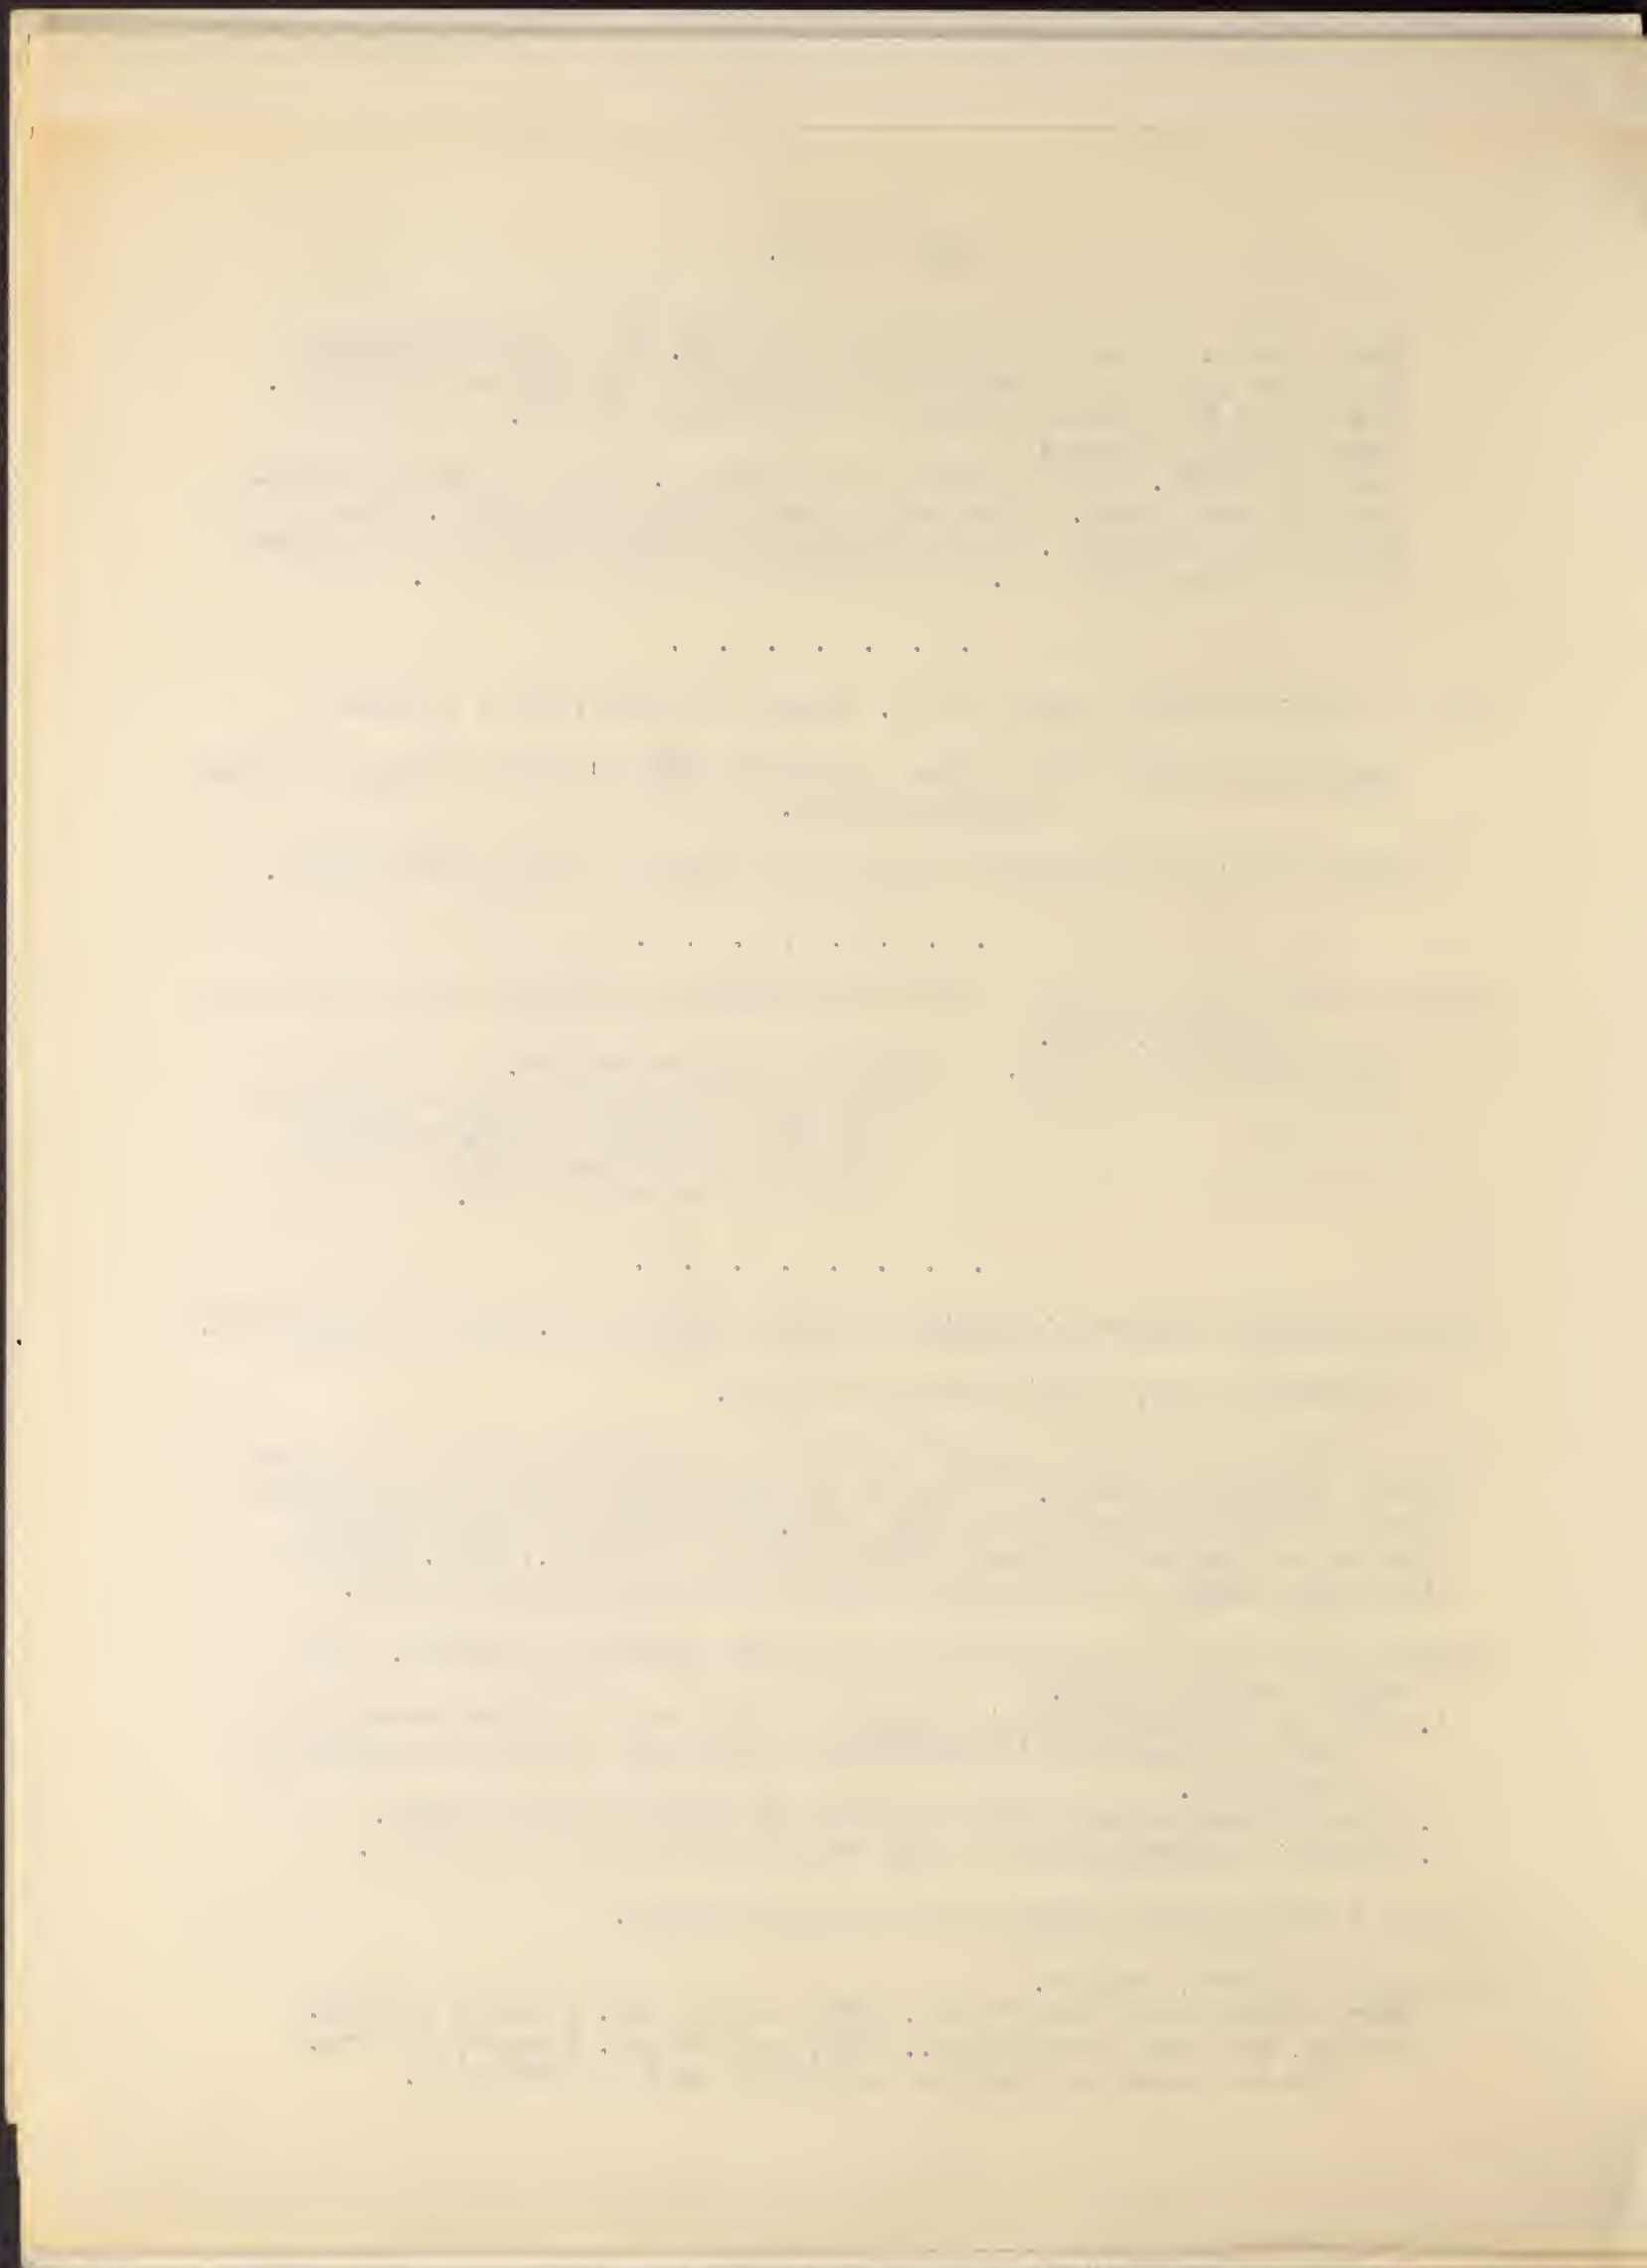

I have a few more items having to do with your family.

Riverside Cemetery, Napanee.

Henry Schermerhorn, died 24 Aug. 1887, aged 93 yrs. 7 months 29 days.

Rebecca, his wife, died 10 Oct., 1879, aged 82 yrs. 1 month, 21 days.

She was sister of Matthias, and likely aunt of Matthias C.

Some Hessians of the U.E.L. Settlement in Marysburgh

BY THE LATE ALEXANDER SMITH.

Settlers from German countries in the pioneer days of Upper Canada had more than the usual share of difficulties and hardships, because, in addition to their lack of acquaintance with the ways of pioneering in the Canadian woods, they spoke dialects unfamiliar to the ears of the majority of their neighbours, whenever they had any. For this reason, the hardships of the Hessian troops in Prince Edward County appear to have been exceptionally severe.

Henry Smith, or Smyth, as the name appears to have been formerly written; and doubtless, Schmidt, before leaving his native country, was paymaster in the Prussian regiment, commonly called the Hessians, who were part of the British army in the revolutionary war. After the close of the war, in 1783, Smith located for a short time at the Cedres Rapids on the St. Lawrence. Then in 1784, along with a number of others in this regiment, he settled in Marysburgh Township,¹ (then called 5th town), in Prince Edward County, where his dwelling place gave the name to Smith's Bay, still shown on the maps by that name.

Smith had originally come from Brunswick, in Prussia. His wife was Mary Elizabeth Benedict, daughter of John Benedict, one of the Hessians who also came to 5th town, and remained there. After settling in Marysburgh, Smith's family sometimes saw hard times, the government rations not always being promptly received, and it was sometimes difficult to keep their family from starving, as appears to have been the case with other families on the Bay of Quinté. It was at such a time that Mrs. Juliana Conger,² of Sophiasburgh, and afterward a resident of Picton, was related to have fished for their family food with a bent pin for a fishhook, when the government rations did not come. The old coffee, or pepper, mill, brought by Smith from Germany and used in these pioneer days in Marysburgh, was once in the possession of the narrator, and is still in existence.

The family of Henry Smith consisted (in the order of their ages) of the following children: Charles, William, Benjamin, John, Ernest, Bernard, and two daughters.³ Their son John was born at the Cedres in 1783, and was baptized by a Roman Catholic priest, as there was no protestant clergyman of any kind in the neighbourhood at the time, and rigid denominationalism did not ¹The names of the first settlers of 5th town, British born as well as Hessians, in this U.E. Loyalist settlement, may be found in the Canadian Archives Report for 1891 (pp. 13, 15-16).

²The name of this early settler appears in the marriage records of 1790 published in "Papers and Records" of the Ontario Historical Society, Vol. I, p. 65.

³Dr. Wm. Canniff's "Settlement of Upper Canada," p. 463, gives correctly the same names of the sons of Smith, but not in the order of their ages.

prevail then in so young a country. The two daughters in the family were older than John. Bernard, younger than all the others, was afterward in the Battle of Lundy's Lane, 1814, and was wounded by a shot in the muscles of the calf of the leg during the action. On the journey of the family from the Cedres Rapids to Marysburgh, they came up the St. Lawrence in Durham boats. So many hardships were endured by these Hessian settlers that many of them, after staying for a short time in 5th town, went back to Germany, dissatisfied with their condition in Canada, and their names are dropped in the subsequent records of that Township.

Some time during the war of 1812, or shortly afterward, John Smith of the above family was married to Anna Susanna Barbara Kroekel, the ceremony being performed by a magistrate, as was often the case in those days. The ancestry of this woman had been as romantic or remarkable as that of Smith, to whom she then became married. Her mother's father was Augustus Gieser, Duke of Hesse, who owned some estates in Hesse Cassel, and her mother's name was Mary Elizabeth Ann Gieser, who was first married to an officer in the Prussian regiment, surnamed David, whom she had first met at the Prussian court. The male heirs of the Gieser family ran out in her own lifetime, as her two brothers were killed in the war between her country and Russia, and the Salic law, which was in force in Prussia, debarred a woman from inheritance. Officer David and his wife, both of whom came from Hesse Cassel, had one son, Conrad David. The officer husband died before the migration to Marysburgh, and some time later his widow was married to Johan Nicholas Kroekel of Marysburgh.¹ Conrad David, the son, came with his mother to 5th town and became one of its early settlers, living in Marysburgh until his death. By her second marriage, viz., that with Kroekel, their only child was Anna, who, at the early age of eighteen, was married to John Smith, as mentioned above. Kroekel and his wife lived and died in Marysburgh.

The Rose burying ground at Smith's Bay contains the remains of most of these first settlers of the Hessian regiment, but it is not now used as a cemetery by living generations. It is one of those sacred spots in which lie buried the courage and perseverance of those whose sacrifices in the early years of this Province are not entirely forgotten.

One of these Hessian settlers, Ernest Schneider, had a big nose, and some local humourist, seeing a resemblance between a sharp rock forming a point on the lake shore and Schneider's nasal organ, brought the point into geographical recognition by giving it the name of "Schneider's Nose."

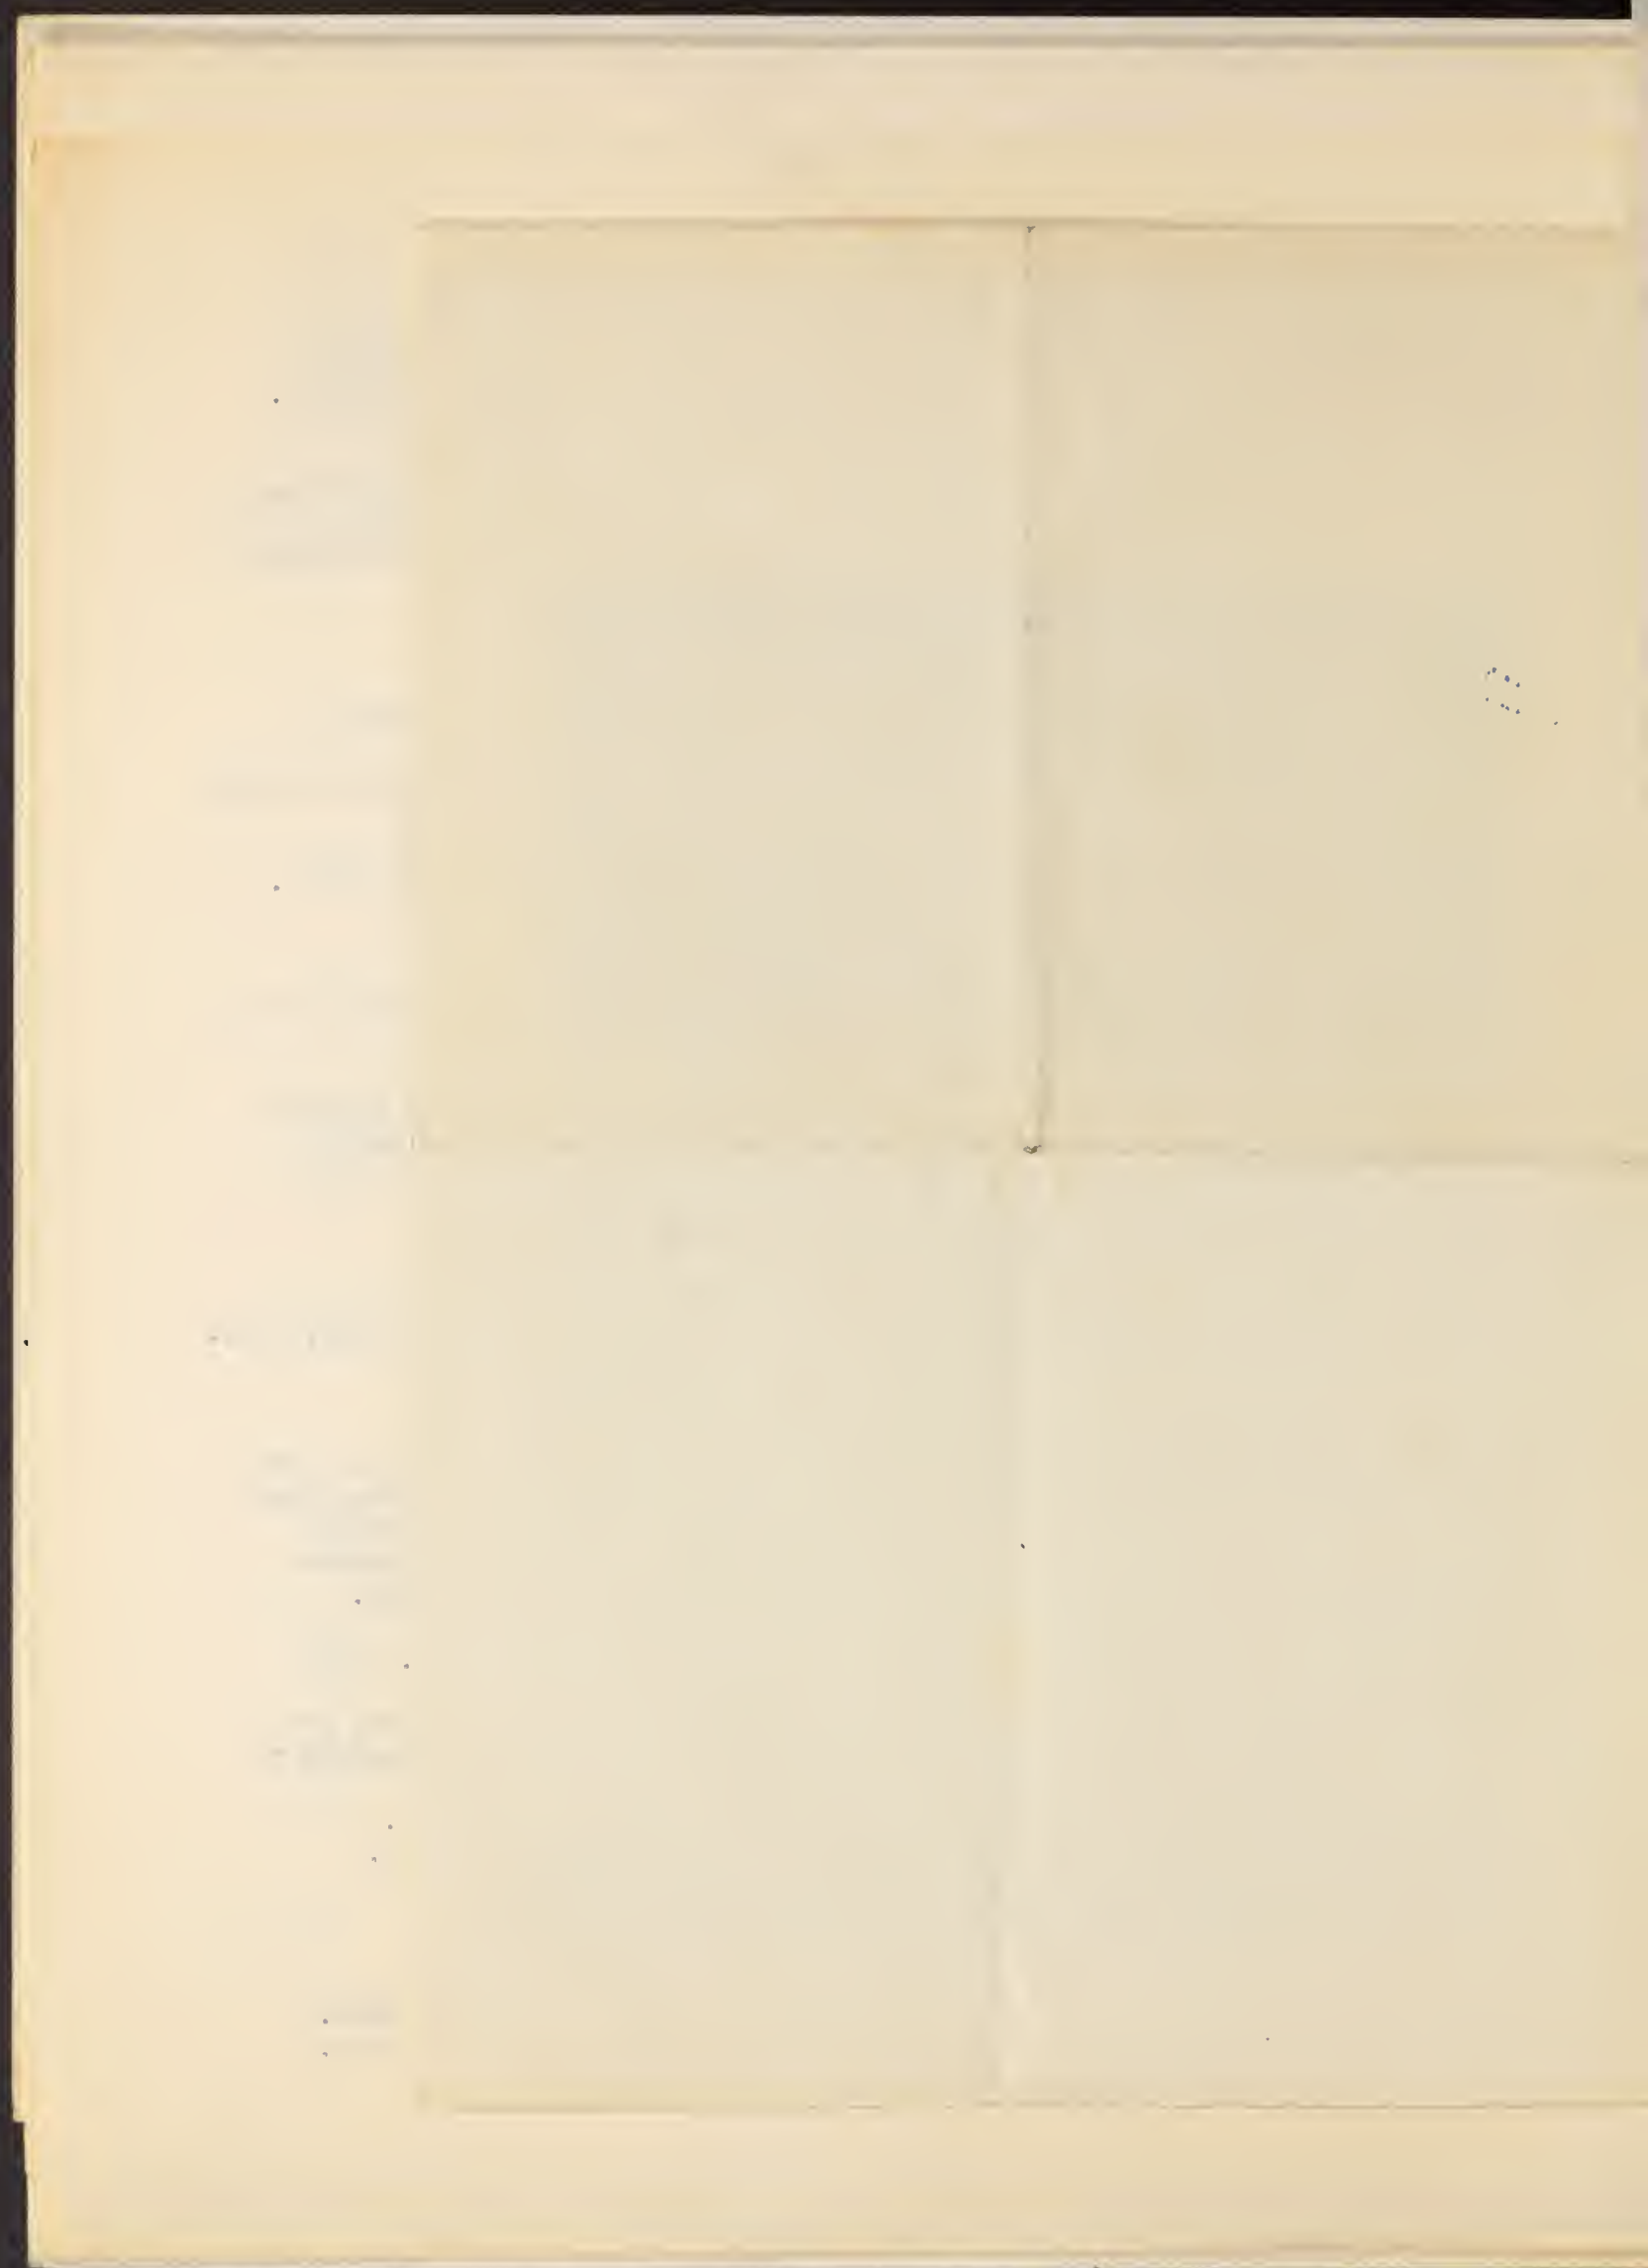

John Smith was ninety-two years of age when he died, and his wife was ninety, they having lived together in married life for nearly seventy-two years. For some time they lived in the Township of Vespra as pioneers.

(Their son, Alexander Smith, who furnished the above narrative in 1900, was born in Prince Edward County, May 12th, 1818, and was of purely German descent, his ancestors being all U.E. Loyalists, as shown above. In his younger days he was a carpenter by trade and also, as early as 1832, was rafting timber on the St. Lawrence.¹ In the Rebellion of '37 he served in Colonel Hill's regiment, with No. 9 Company from Prince Edward County, under the command of Captain Beeston, from Picton, and after this officer retired, under Captain Cameron. Alex. Smith served at Toronto, Niagara, and Windsor or Sandwich, the rebels at Point au Pelee Island being soon dispersed. He was joined in marriage with Miss Jane Merrill, November 16th, 1842. They settled in Vespra Township in the autumn of 1847, although he had lived there before, in his father's time as pioneer, and he became a well-known figure in the Grenfel settlement for many years. He served for some time in the Vespra Township Council. He became skilled in hunting, being a capital "shot" with the rifle. He acquired an extensive knowledge of forest life, especially wild animal life, and his statements were those of an expert. In his later life he retired and lived at North Oliver Street, Barrie, where the secretary, who has recorded the above narrative, often interviewed him, and where he died, March 5th, 1903.)

¹The Rev. John Langhorn's register records the marriage as bearing date of April 28, 1794. See "Papers and Records," Ontario Historical Society. Vol. I, p. 67.

¹His account of some of his timber-rafting experiences is preserved in W. L. Smith's "Pioneers of Old Ontario," pp. 87-8, where, however, by an error, his name appears as Henry Smith, which was the name of his grandfather.

Dear Dr.

The Ontario Historical Society has referred you to me in regards to some information concerning my relatives.

My Great Grandfather's name was Francis Smith and he married a german french girl in Ogdenburg N.Y.
and went to Canada to live.

Her name was Lida or Lydia Freolich, which they tell me is spelled Fralick nowadays.

I am told that you live close to a Fralick family.

Would it be asking too much for now to give me their address or if now have any knowledge of this early family I would appreciate it.

My Great Grandfather and wife were married about 1821

Thanking you in advance
I remain

Hewell Smith

Sawyer Family (Welsh)

" Aunt Mary ^{Schumer} says the Sawyers were direct descendants of the Spaniards whose Armada was wrecked on the Coast of Wales. This accounts for the Spanish complexion so noticeable in some of the descendants. This is especially to be noticed in her.

" Elizabeth - married Peter Smith

(2) Aaron - Had:

John, William, Annie, & possibly Hannah & Robert, and Minnie, who married Whit Switzer and lived at St. Marys, Ont.

Aaron lived at Woodham, about 30 miles north-east of London.

Whit Switzer's son lives in London.

John Smith, born in England

JACOB SMITH, SENIOR, U. E.,
FREDERICKSBURGH.

Jacob Smith, Sr., according to his Loyalist Claim, was born in Germany and came to America many years before the Revolution. His age, according to a list of the 2nd battalion King's Royal Regiment of New York in Jan., 1783, was given as 42. This would make him born in 1740. His height was 5 feet 7 inches. In 1775 he lived near Albany, where he had lived for 20 years on 250 acres of Patroon Lands. He had cleared about 100 acres and had a good framed house. He lost a yoke of oxen, 2 steers, a mare and colt, a cow and 3 steers, all of which were taken by the Rebels.

Jacob joined General Burgoyne and served in Capt. Samuel McKay's Loyal Volunteers during the campaign of 1777. Under the terms of the Capitulation of the British Army Jacob Smith was allowed to go to Canada (Province of Quebec) on the promise that he would not serve again. As a result, for the next few years he was employed in public works. In 1781, the Americans having broken the terms of Capitulation, the Loyalists were regrouped into regiments. At this time Jacob Smith became a corporal in the 2nd battalion of the King's Royal Regiment of New York. This battalion served as garrison at Oswego and at Carleton Island, from which point they carried out the raid of October, 1781, down the Mohawk River, under Major Ross. In July, 1783, this battalion was sent to Cataragui (now Kingston) to rebuild the fort and to prepare for the settlement of the Loyalists along the Bay of Quinte. This battalion was discharged on 24 June, 1784, following which they settled in Township 3 (Fredericksburgh).

Jacob Smith's name is on the list of those settling in Fredericksburgh in October, 1784. His family, except for his sons who were serving with him, had not yet arrived from the States, and there is a notation that 'his lands not run out.' This means that he had land on lease somewhere, likely in the neighborhood of Montreal, which he could not leave immediately. So, he likely was with that portion of his battalion which remained in Quebec Province, although I cannot find further reference to him in that Province.

Jacob Smith's name is in the Provision list of 1786, and in 1790 he drew 350 acres of land, including lands for his wife and children (50 acres for having a wife and 50 for each child. This was separate from that drawn by his children). The date of his death was unknown, although he was alive in 1788. In addition to the 350 acres, he drew, in 1784, the east half of lot 25 in the 3rd concession of Fredericksburgh.

The name of his wife is unknown.

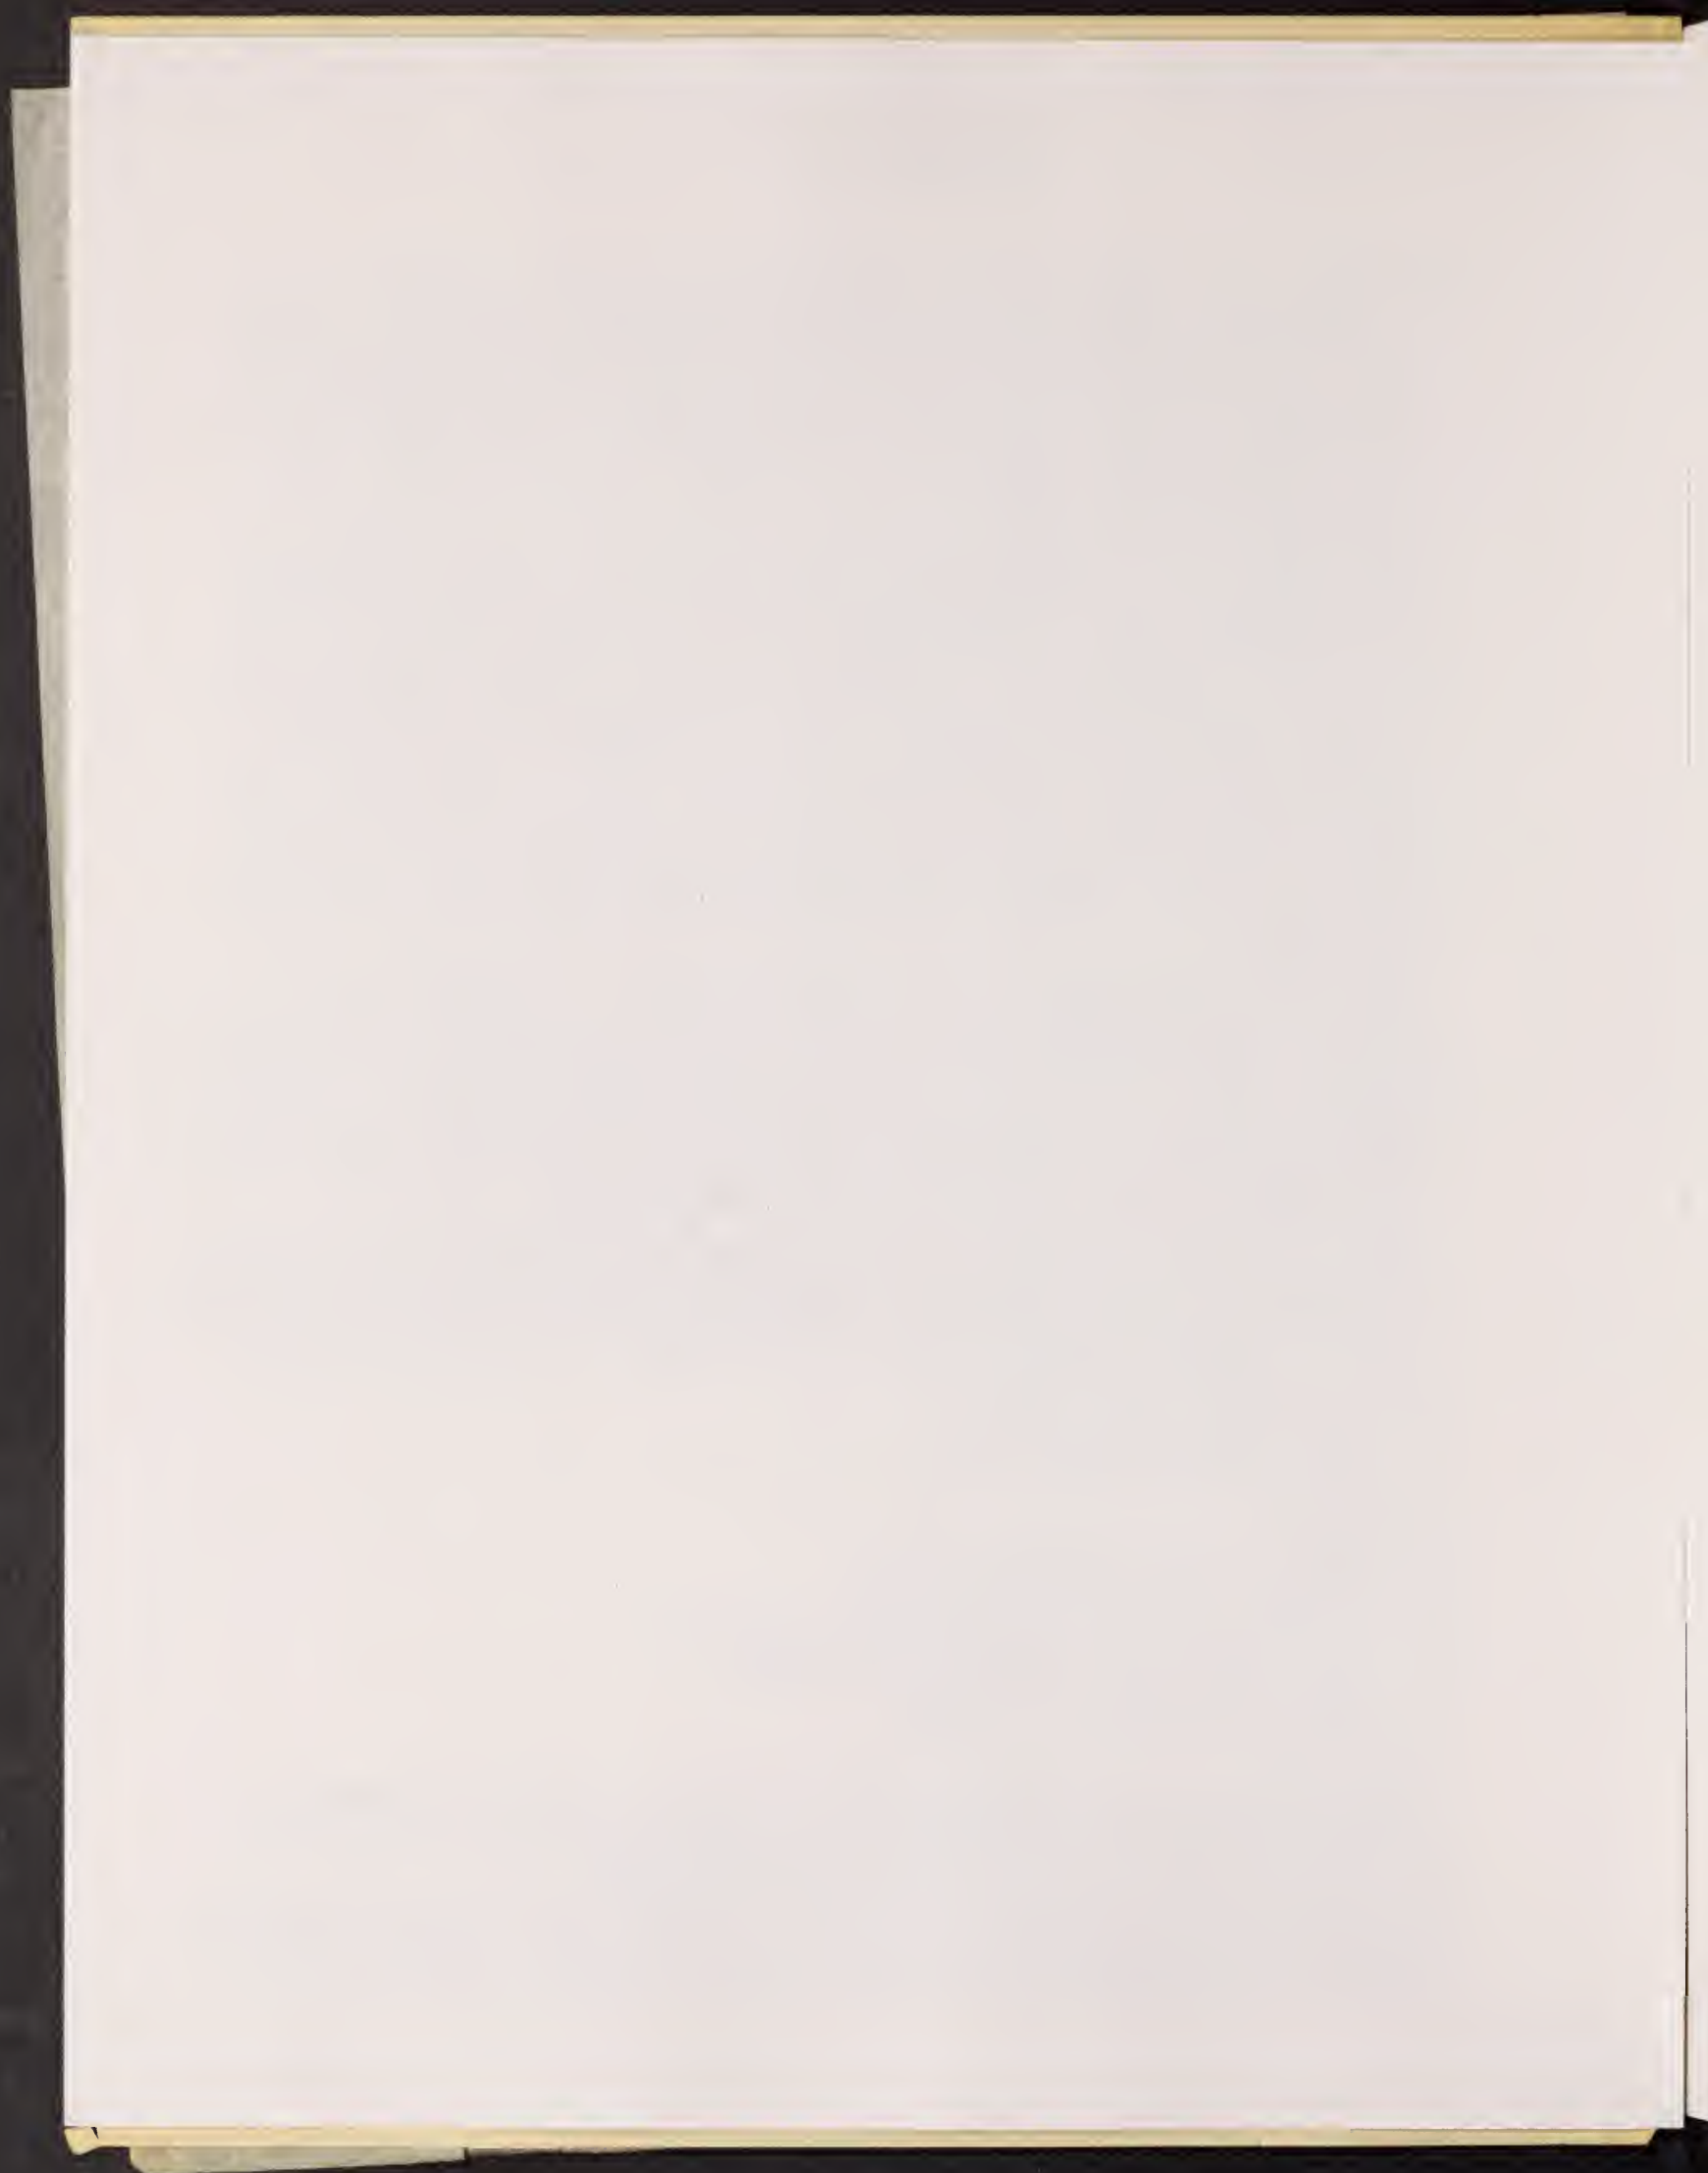

His known children were:

1. Barbara, wife of Jacob Fretz.
2. Nicholas.
3. Jacob.
4. Margaret, wife of Matthew German.
5. Elisabeth, wife of Conrad Johnson.
6. Catharine, wife of Joel Johnson, of Hallowell.
- + 7. (John) George, who married Susannah Lucas.
8. Amah, who married ----- Baker.
9. Rebecca, who married ----- Edgar.
10. Philip.

I wish to add that Jacob's son, Jacob, Jr., in giving testimony regarding his father's Loyalist Claim, stated that his father was upwards of sixty years.

So, Jacob, Sr., may have been born in 1720, not 1740.

Two of Jacob's sons served in the ~~provisional~~ Loyalist army, according to the statement of Philip, son of Jacob, Sr. In a list of the King's Rangers is Philip, aged 23 years, 5' 9". It is not known which of the several Smiths in Fredericksburgh was the other son. It could have been Jacob, Jr.,

JACOB SMITH, SR.

ALTHOUGH I cannot find his name in the muster rolls.

John George Smith, son of Jacob, Sr., was born 15 June, 1772, and died 20 June, 1853. He married Susannah, daughter of Amos Lucas, U. E., on 23 Jan., 1795. I know nothing more about him than you already know. Here are a list of his children, all of whom were baptized in Ebenezer Lutheran Church, Fredericksburgh, except the first:

1. Amos Lucas, born 15 May, 1796; died ~~15 Sept.~~ 19 April, 1877.
2. Rachael, born 6 April, 1798.
3. Susanna, born 2 Mar., 1800.
4. ~~Mare~~ (Mary), born 19 Oct., 1801.
5. Samuel R., born 29 Dec., 1803.
6. James Wells, born 10 Feb., 1806.
7. Hiram (Hiram), born 2 May, 1808.
8. Dr. Martin Luther, born 18 Feb., 1810.
9. Sophiah, born 4 June, 1812.
10. Wellington, born 16 Sept., 1816.

Amos Lucas lived near Fort Edward. He did not cross into Canada until 1783. He remained behind to act as forwarder of despatches and assistant to Loyalist action. He lost 4 oxen, 5 cattle, 10 sheep, 24 hogs, utensils and furniture, taken at various times by both rebel and British forces. Thomas Sherwood signed a certificate to the effect that Amos Lucas was desired to stay to receive and procure intelligence by him from Dr. Smith. He died between 1783 and 1788, and his widow, Susanna, remarried Samuel Brownson, Junior, ~~and moved to Fredericksburgh~~. Amos Lucas came to Fredericksburgh in 1794, and in October of that year his name appears in the Muster Roll with a wife, one son over ten, one son under ten, and two daughters under ten. These children appear to be

1. George, who petitioned 18 Nov., 1797, as son of Amos Lucas. He married 12 Mar., 1799, Lydia, daughter of Joseph Jenks, U. E.
2. Susannah, born 23 Feb., 1778, who applied for land with her brother, Geo. She married 21 July, 1795, John George Smith.
3. Daniel, who applied for land as son of Amos Lucas, on 24 Apr., 1833.
4. Mary, wife of Simeon King. She applied for land as daughter of Amos Lucas 16 Feb., 1811.

There is a land petition in 1805 of the heirs of Amos Lucas. I do not have it. A letter to the Public Archives might get you a copy.

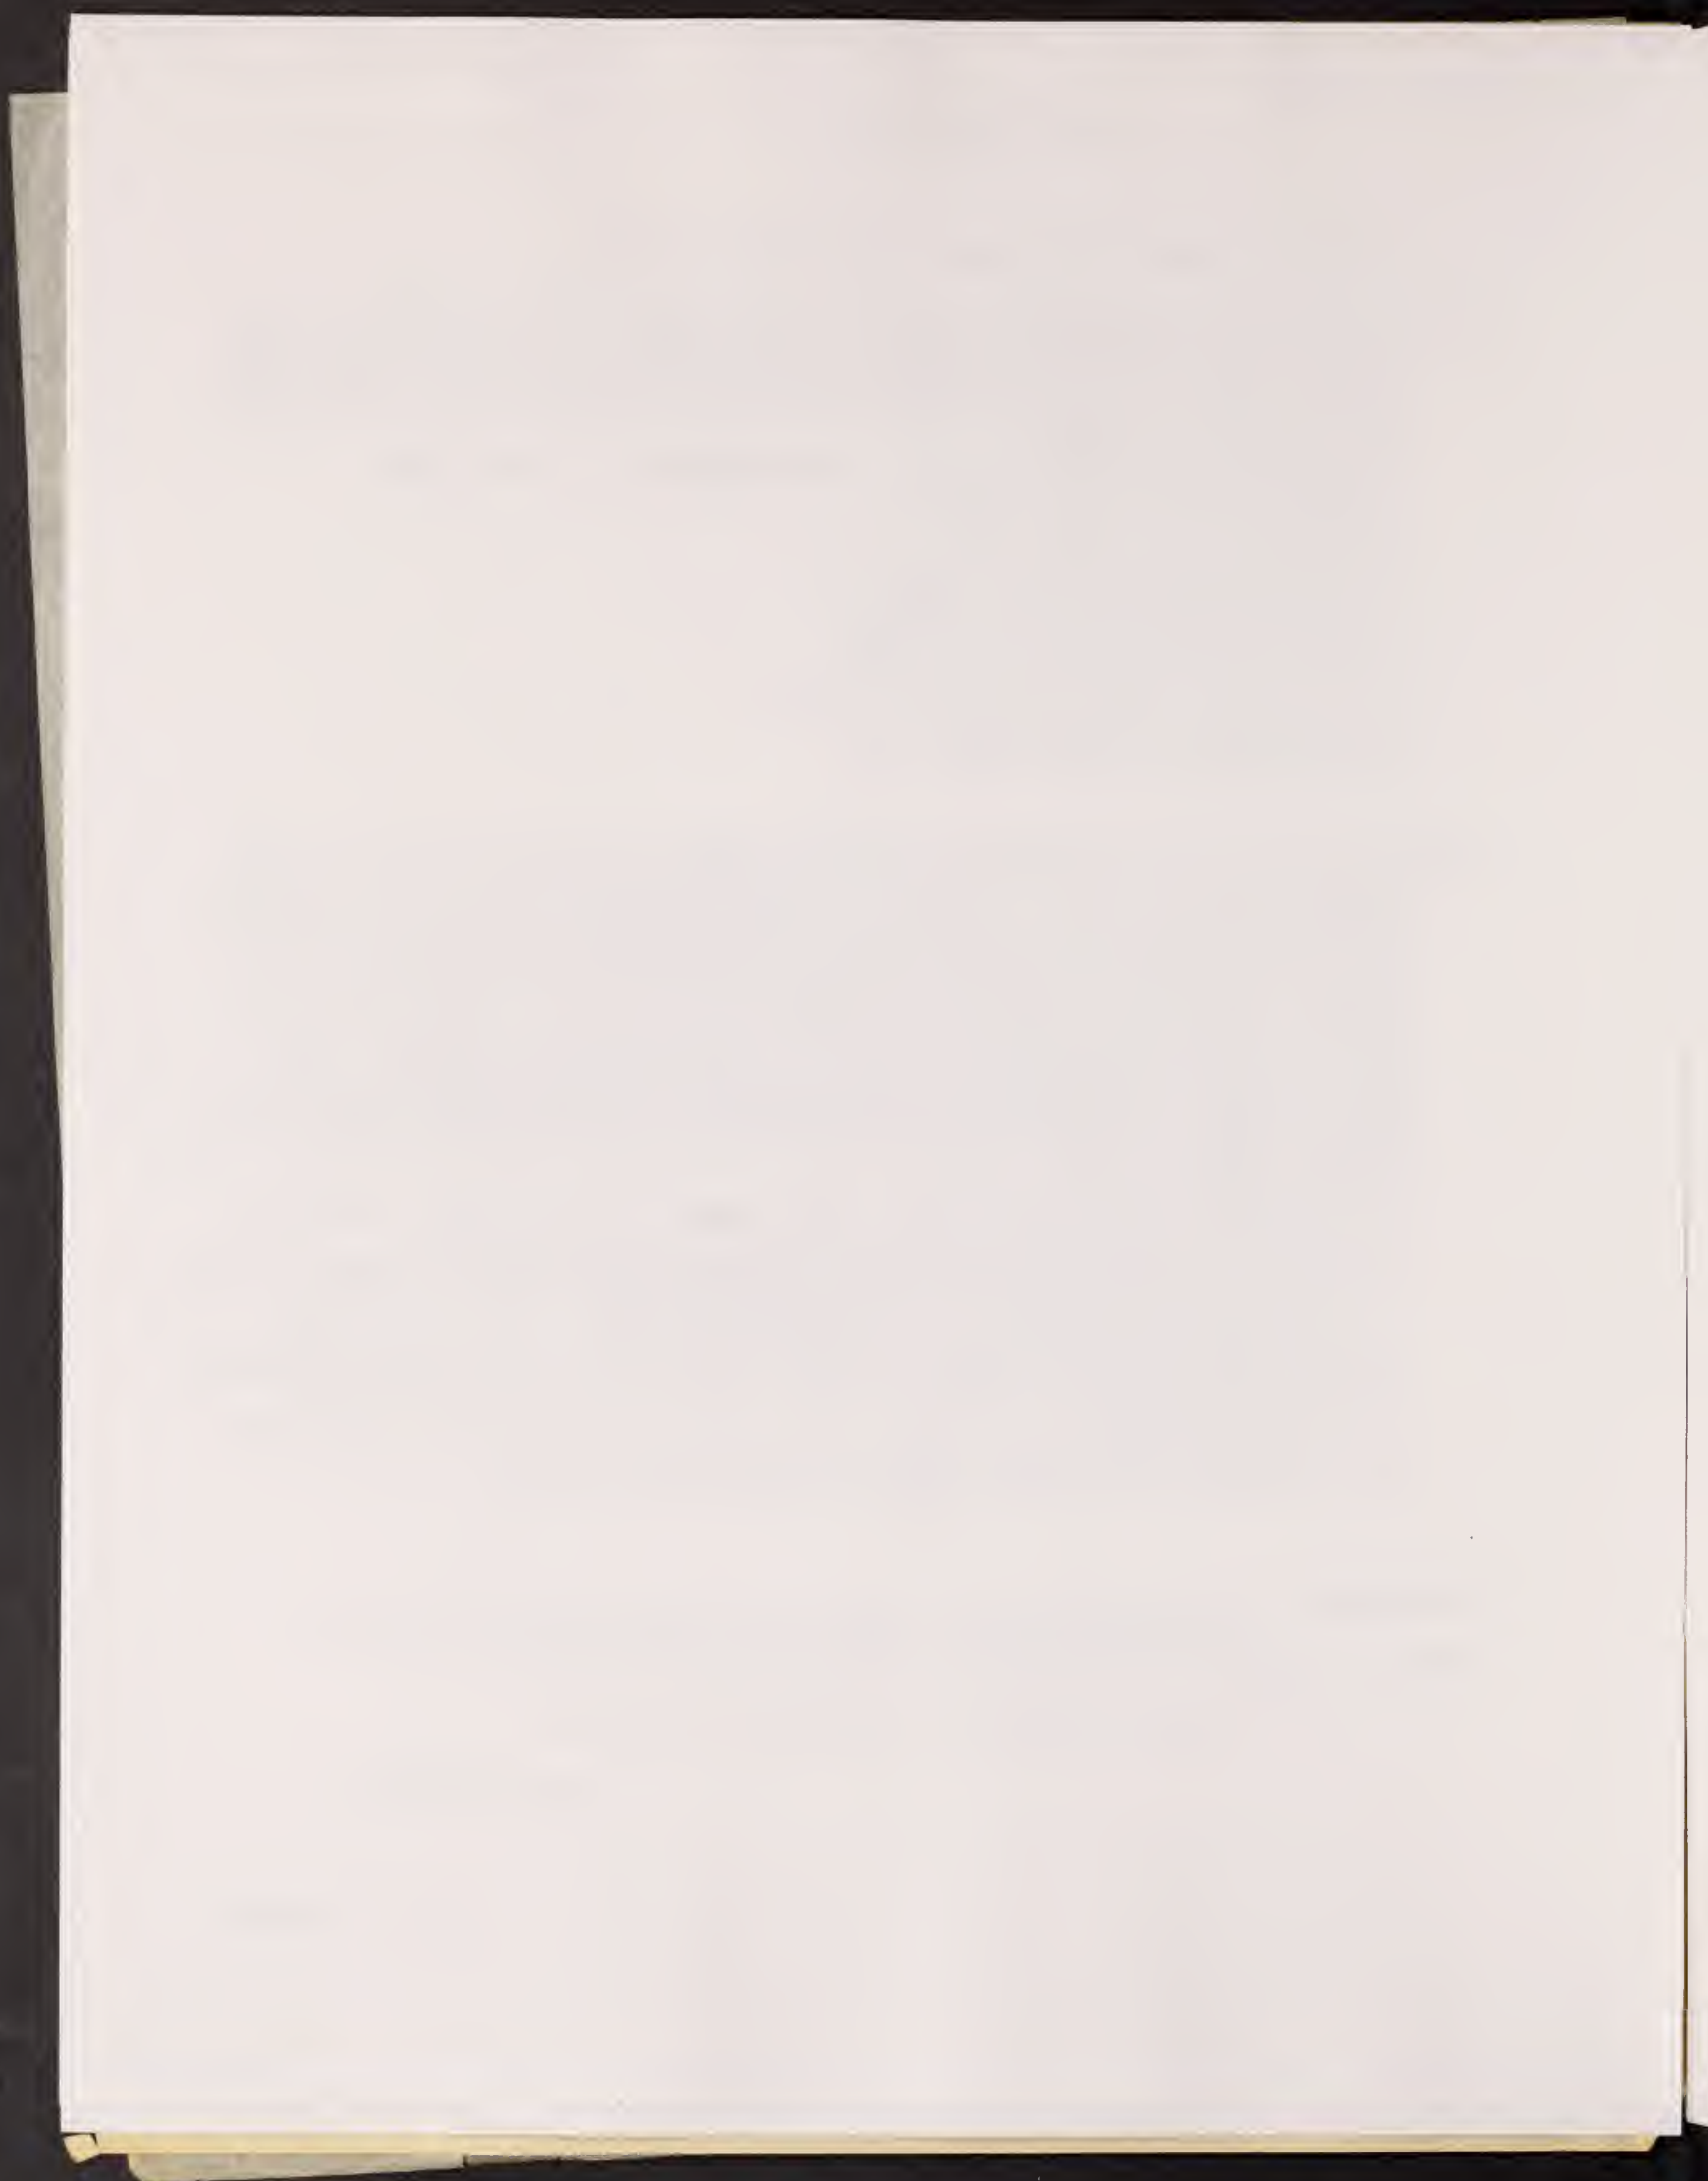

Dear friend:

Many thanks for your notes on the Smith family to which you belong. I hope that the notes above will repay you for them.

I hope to see you at Belleville in November.

Yours sincerely

Dr. H.C. Burleigh,
Genealogist,
Bath, Ontario

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

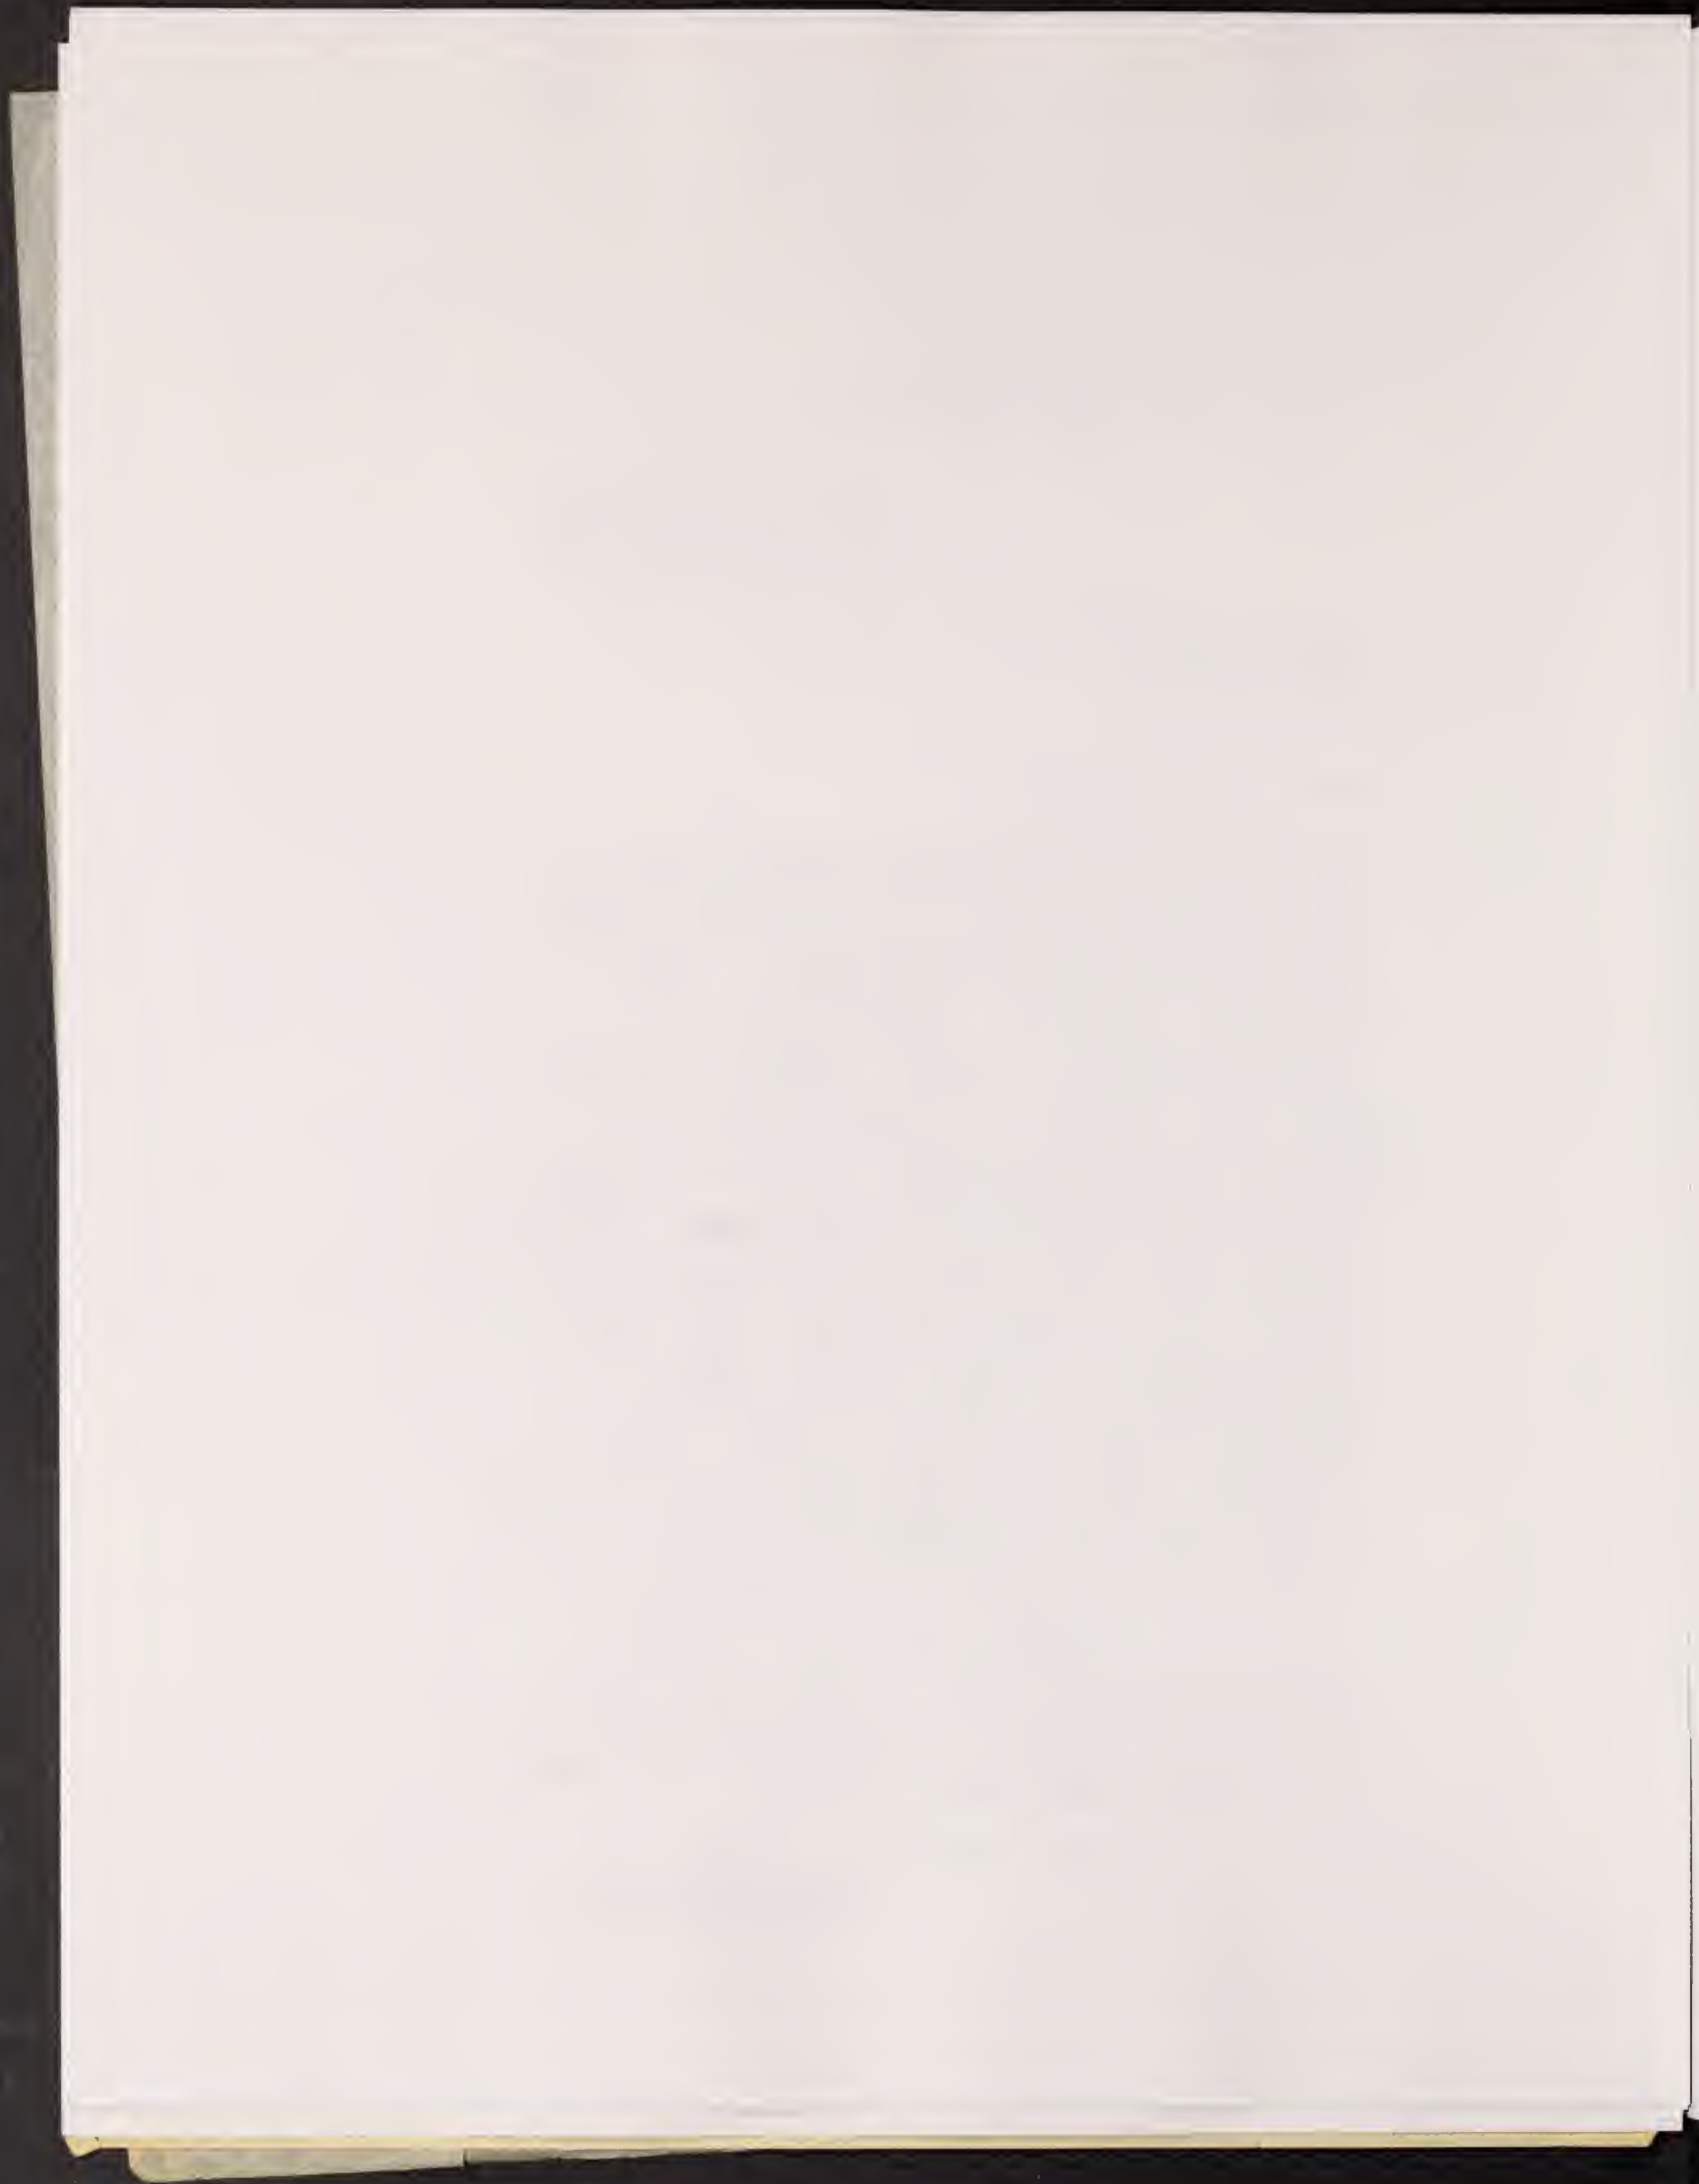

My husband's family claim for UEL descent has been cleared and my husband is an approved member of the Toronto Branch UEL. However, the genealogist at the time of application (Nov 1963) was Mrs. Ross Glassford. She was convinced that my husband's ancestor, Susannah Lucas, daughter of Amos Lucas, married Dr. George Smyth, an Irishman, whereas our records show him to have been John George Smyth, son of Jacob, a German from Albany county. I have recently looked at the published baptismal and marriage records for Fredericksburg in Ontario Historical Society Vol I and II, and there seems to be little doubt that John George (or Johan Georg) was the son of Jacob Schmidt. According to family legend, the son of this union, Amos Lucas Smyth, was twice married, first to Magdalene Huffman by whom he had 7 children, then to Elizabeth Leavens by whom he had 6 children. The offspring of the first marriage did not recognize the offspring of the second, because Elizabeth Leavens was a Quaker.

Do you have anything in your archives that would solve this incongruity ?

Another question. I've been trying to trace descendants of Molly Brant. Her son George has left a vague trail around Kingston and around Brantford and Hamilton. Do you have a marriage date for George Johnson or any facts about him at all ?

yours sincerely,

Jean Johnston
